WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

MISSION STATEMENT

It is the mission of the Athletic Department to create and foster an environment which provides opportunities for all student-athletes to enrich their collegiate experience through participation on athletic teams which are competitive at the conference and national level. In concert with the mission and values of Washington State University, the department is dedicated to providing opportunities, which will enhance the intellectual, physical, social, moral and cultural development of the whole person, while conducting all activities with honesty and integrity in accordance with the principles of good sportsmanship and ethical conduct. The Athletic Department values gender and ethnic diversity and is committed to providing equitable opportunities for all students and staff. The department will pursue its mission while upholding the values, purposes and policies of Washington State University, the Pacific-10 Conference, and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Martin Stadium Renovation

- Budgeted at $42 million
- Will add upper level premium seating to the north side of the stadium, including luxury suites, loge boxes, and club seats.

Martin Stadium Renovation

"On December 4, 2006, the long awaited renovation of the stadium began. I cannot begin to express how critical this project is to the future of Washington State University and WSU Athletics. The renovation will add to the vitality of not only the WSU football program and Cougar Athletics in general but the entire University."

—WSU Director of Athletics Jim Sterk

Benefits of Renovation

Ultimate Fan Experience at a Pacific-10 Conference University: The full renovation of Martin Stadium will provide fans with additional and improved amenities, which will enhance the game-day experience. The renovation will produce an environment for one of the conference's - and nation's - best game-day experiences for college football.

Cougar Football Competitiveness: Martin Stadium holds such a prominent position in the middle of the WSU campus, so its appearance - its first impression, if you will - as a world class facility is critical. A showcase stadium located at the heart of the University's campus will serve as a powerful reflection of the quality of both Cougar football and WSU Athletics as a whole, which in turn will significantly bolster recruiting efforts.

Contribute to Washington State University as a World Class Campus: A renovated stadium provides a spotlight not only on the Athletic Department, but also on the University as a whole. The goal is to elevate the game-day experience to match Washington State's "World Class. Face to Face." reputation.

WSU Athletics: A renovation will help WSU maintain a more competitive position financially in the Pac-10 Conference and nationally, since premium seating, increased capacity, and related concession sales will provide additional operating revenue for WSU's Athletic Department. Renovating Martin Stadium is crucial in order for WSU to keep pace competitively with its Pac-10 counterparts.

Phases I and II

Phase I of construction included the development of restrooms and concessions at the east end of the stadium and new restroom facilities on the south concourse. In addition, a plaza was developed as part of the east entrance and a new ticket office was constructed in the east end as well. Phase II included a widening of the north concourse, in conjunction with the development of new restroom and concession facilities. Phase I and II were completed for the start of the 2008 football season.

Phases III and IV

Phase III will include constructing luxury suites, loge and club seats atop the north stands. Phase IV will include the construction of premium seating atop the east stand.

Community: Cougar Athletics is one of the largest economic drivers of the region. A visit to the renovated Martin Stadium provides a positive experience on game day; thereby promoting tourism, industry, and related direct and indirect economic benefits to local and surrounding regional businesses and community organizations.

Cougar Indoor Practice Facility

WSU's Indoor Practice Facility features a full-sized football/soccer field, a six-lane 200m track and an eight-lane 60m sprint track. The climate controlled facility, nearly seven stories high in the center, is 131 yards long and 73 yards wide. Mondo Performance Super X covers the entire 87,000 square feet practice area, while a roll-out Astro-Turf surface converts the Cougar IPF for use by WSU football and soccer teams.

“A trip to Pullman when the Cougars are winning can be a nightmare for the opposition.”

MARTIN STADIUM HISTORY

NAME: Clarence D. Martin Stadium and Academic Center
CAPACITY: 35,117

HISTORY

1892—Built as Soldier Field;
1895 (November 9)—WSU defeated Idaho 10-4 in the first football game on Soldier Field;
1902—The field was renamed Rogers Field in honor of the Governor of the State of Washington, John R. Rogers;
1936—Washington State College built a completely new football stadium, but retained the same name; the new stadium was an all-wood structure built on concrete pilings. The field also featured new stands, an enlarged press box and an electronic scoreboard;
1970 (April)—Fire destroyed the south stands; a one-million dollar fund drive began after the decision was made to rebuild the stands rather than relocate or build an entirely new stadium; Dan Martin, a Los Angeles businessman, gave $250,000 to the project with the stipulation the stadium be renamed after his father, Clarence D. Martin. Clarence Martin was Governor of the State from 1933-40;
1972 (summer)—first artificial turf (Astroturf) was installed;
1972 (Sept. 30)—WSU met Utah in the first game played in refurbished Martin Stadium;
1975—New north (student) stands were built;
1978 (fall)—Work began on the academic portion of the complex on the south side with the computer center relocating to the complex upon completion of the project in 1979;
1979 (January)—Another renovation of the stadium began to increase the seating capacity from 27,600 to 40,000; the floor of the stadium was excavated 16 feet to add 12,400 seats; the track was removed from the stadium and relocated to the Bailey Baseball Stadium area directly north of the football complex, while a new baseball stadium was then built just south and east of Friel Court, home of Cougar basketball; the entire project, like the one in 1970, was funded through contributions; gift-in-kind and the purchase of “stadium builder” seat options; it marked the first time a collegiate football stadium had been enlarged by digging down rather than building up; the project was also funded in part by the Martin family, with Charlotte Martin, widow of Dan Martin, giving $250,000 to the project; a SuperTurf artificial surface was installed;
1979 (October 13)—WSU celebrated Homecoming by defeating UCLA 17-13 before a record crowd of 32,651 in the first game played in the enlarged Martin Stadium;
1990 (summer)—Installed the sand-filled Omni-Turf playing surface.
2000 (summer)—Installed FieldTurf in Martin Stadium and on Rogers Field.
2006 —Current stadium renovation began.
2006 (summer)—Replaced FieldTurf in Martin Stadium
2008 —Phase I and II completed.

Martin Stadium, home of Cougar Football, and the adjacent Rogers Field, WSU's practice facility, both feature FieldTurf, the closest artificial playing surface to grass. In 2000 WSU became just the second NCAA Division I team to install the latest innovation in artificial playing surfaces. During the summer of 2006 FieldTurf installed their latest product in Martin Stadium, providing WSU players with the very best playing surface available.

A friendly environment

The Pullman campus straddles College Hill in Pullman, a college town of 25,000 located among the rolling hills of the Palouse region of eastern Washington. The University is the largest residential university west of the Mississippi, which enhances the friendly, traditional collegiate atmosphere for which WSU is known.

WSU is located within easy traveling distance of Spokane and Coeur d' Alene to the north. Seattle and Portland are less than 300 miles to the west.

World class. Face to face.

At Washington State University you will work face to face with world-class professors. The University has 10 colleges and offers over 250 fields of study spanning the liberal arts and sciences, as well as architecture, business, education, nursing, pharmacy, agriculture, engineering, and veterinary medicine.

*It's a refrain repeated by alumni time and again:
WSU professors were their inspiration and their friends.*

Enter the future with the confidence that comes from real preparation.

As an athlete, you know that if you've practiced hard you feel more confident for a big game. At WSU, the education you receive, together with the programs available and great faculty, provides you with that same confidence for the biggest game of all—your future. The education gives you the skills to be critical thinkers and initiators, important skills in any endeavor you decide upon. Students can immerse themselves in a variety of learning situations, ranging from high levels of interaction with professors to hands-on research projects and community and public service activities. The newest technology, numerous leadership opportunities, and study abroad programs further enrich the WSU college experience.

Dedicated to diversity

Washington State University seeks to enrich every student's educational experience through exposure to different cultures, philosophies, and scholarly perspectives. This atmosphere of interchange and inquiry is fostered through various campus programs, diversity in the curriculum, and comfortable places around campus to meet and talk with students with different backgrounds. All students are encouraged to study abroad for a semester to experience life in another country. But you don't need to leave campus to find opportunities to learn about differences as there are numerous events, films, musicians, and speakers throughout the year that address issues of equity and diversity.

Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Equity and Diversity

Given the importance of making WSU a welcoming and supportive place for everyone, the Office of the Vice President for Equity and Diversity was established in 2004 and then merged with Student Affairs in 2007. This office worked with students, faculty, and staff at all WSU locations to develop a university-wide Strategic Plan for Equity and Diversity. In accordance with this plan, goals have been established and work is underway to increase the diversity and retention rates among students and faculty, improve the campus climate for underrepresented students, infuse diversity into university leadership and management, provide increased educational/scholarship opportunities, and devise better methods of assessment and accountability for diversity progress. More information about the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Equity and Diversity and the Strategic Plan can be found by visiting www.diversity.wsu.edu/.

WSU enrolls more than 25,000 students statewide. Pullman is located about 80 miles south of Spokane. The area offers opportunities for fun and relaxation. Many nationally noted bands, musicians, and dance companies come to campus. As a member of the Pacific-10 Conference, WSU provides exciting competition for the sports spectator. There are beautiful parks in and around Pullman. And, there are ski areas within easy driving distance from Pullman.

The student recreation center opened spring of 2001. Its 150,000 square feet contains seven gymnasiums, a four-lane indoor track, 17,000 square feet of fitness training area, five-lane lap pool, leisure spa, three multi-purpose rooms (aerobic/martial arts), four racquetball courts, a wellness center, a juice bar and a fireplace lounge.

Cougar Student-Athlete Development

Student-Athlete Development

Our Student-Athlete Development unit initiates support for academic and personal success during on-campus recruiting visits with prospective student-athletes, and continues providing support and services until student-athletes graduate from WSU. Our student-athlete development staff is committed to developing and implementing comprehensive and effective programs to assist student-athletes in identifying and meeting their academic and career goals leading to graduation and career development. We take a "life skills" approach when assisting student-athletes with class selection, major selection, graduation planning, career development, time management, goal setting, study skills, and learning strategies.

Our focus is the student-athlete and his personal development. We reinforce the value of maximizing the educational and career opportunities at WSU. And, most importantly, our staff emphasizes the importance of student-athletes taking personal responsibility and ownership in developing their academic and career plans. Our 93 percent graduation rate for those seniors who have exhausted their eligibility (over the past 10 years), second among all Pacific-10 Conference schools in that time, reflects our consistent commitment to academic success while striking a balance between academics and athletics.

The Mission

The academic support services staff provides comprehensive support for all student-athletes. The type and level of programming, monitoring and support provided to each student-athlete is dependent upon the individual needs of each student-athlete, based on the review of existing academic information and academic assessments administered by the academic support services staff and/or University Testing Services. The academic support services staff also encourages student-athletes to access existing university resources. The academic counselors assist student-athletes with class selection, major selection, graduation planning, career planning, time management, goal setting, study skills and learning strategies. The counselors work closely with the University faculty to monitor grades and class attendance. The academic staff also communicates with the staff and faculty to provide assistance with rescheduling class assignments and exams missed due to team travel."

Cougar Weight Room

With two floors covering 14,000 square feet and featuring state-of-the-art equipment, WSU's weight room is considered one of the top facilities in the nation.

WSU Football Strength & Conditioning

Mission: To provide the best facilities, training and coaching for the continued athletic development of all Washington State University Football student-athletes. This mission reflects the philosophical excellence of the University, community and Athletics Department. The WSU Football Strength and Conditioning Program is based on a comprehensive year-round plan that focuses on the following key areas to make each football student-athlete the best athlete they can be:

- 1) Developing athleticism
- 2) Training attitude
- 3) Developing technique & flexibility
- 4) Training the core body
- 5) Training while standing up
- 6) Developing Power (the combination of strength and speed)
- 7) Training multiple muscle groups and joints together at the same time
- 8) Training the pushing and pulling musculature equally
- 9) Training 1-limb lifts as well as 2-limb lifts
- 10) Being organized, brief and intense
- 11) Training around injuries
- 12) Preventing injuries

Cougar Athletic Training Services

Prevention of athletic injuries is the primary goal of the Washington State University athletic staff, along with the care and rehabilitation of student-athletes.

When injuries do occur, the Cougar staff provides the very best in care, utilizing state-of-the-art equipment. A new hydrotherapy complex opened in the fall of 2008 to further meet the needs of student-athletes.

- More than 40 students obtaining clinical hours in a nationally-accredited athletic training education program
- Three sports medicine trained team physicians
- Coordinator of Sports Nutrition/Registered Dietician

Cougar Mania Hydrotherapy Facility

The new hydrotherapy facility includes a Hydroworx underwater treadmill, a cold plunge and a warm therapy pool.

WSU's football locker room opened for the 2000 season, along with new facilities for equipment services, training and meeting rooms.

Director of Equipment Operations Milton Neal and Assistant Josh Pietz.

The WSU athletic equipment room

is staffed by four full-time certified equipment managers with more than 43 years of combined service at WSU. The staff is responsible for fitting, ordering and purchasing, as well as inventory control for all athletic equipment. In addition, the staff also provides maintenance and repair of all protective equipment and clothing. The athletic equipment room houses all athletic equipment and clothing, a laundry room, four heat press printing machines, three sewing machines and various other tools in a 5,300-square-foot room that allows the department to be totally self-sufficient in providing service to student-athletes, coaches and staff. Daily laundry service after all practices and competitions is offered for student-athletes, coaches and staff. The staff pack and transport all equipment for every sport to competitions away from home as well as locker room set-up at home and away competitions.

Cougar Football Tradition

November 18, 1894:

WSU played its first football game, a 10-0 win over Idaho. The game was played at Moscow.

November 9, 1895:

WSU's first home football game was played, a 10-4 win over Idaho.

November 24, 1906:

WSU beat Whitman in Pullman 6-0 to wrap up a perfect 6-0 season.

December 15, 1915:

The Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was formed during a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original members were California, Washington, Oregon and Oregon State. WSU joined the conference at the start of the 1917 academic year, one year after league play began in the fall of 1916. Stanford joined a year later.

November 25, 1915:

WSU beat Gonzaga 48-0 to complete a 6-0 season in which the Cougars allowed just one TD (Montana) and one field goal (Oregon), outscoring opponents 190-10.

January 1, 1916:

WSU defeated eastern power Brown 14-0 in the first of the continuous Rose Bowl games at Pasadena.

October 20, 1917:

WSU began play in the PCC with a 26-3 win over Oregon in Pullman.

October 2, 1926:

The legendary Babe Hollingbery's first game as WSU head coach was a 35-0 win in the season opener at home over the College of Idaho.

December 25, 1929:

WSU began an 11-game win streak in Hawaii with a 12-0 win over the Honolulu Townies. Six days later WSU defeated Hawaii 28-7 and that was followed the next year by nine straight wins.

November 29, 1930:

The Cougars beat Villanova 13-0 to complete a 9-0 regular season in capturing the PCC title and earning a berth in the Rose Bowl.

January 1, 1931:

WSU met Alabama in the Rose Bowl, losing 24-0 to end an 11-game WSU win streak.

December, 1936:

Quarterback Ed Goddard was named an All-America first team quarterback for the third consecutive season.

December 5, 1942:

Babe Hollingbery coached his final WSU game, losing 21-0 to No. 17 Texas A&M at College Station. He finished his career 93-53-14. After the 1942 season WSU suspended football for two years because of WWII and Hollingbery elected to remain with the family business in Yakima, rather than resume coaching in 1944.

November 22, 1958:

WSU beat Washington 18-14 in Spokane for the final game as a member of the PCC. The league's college presidents then dissolved the league.

September 19, 1959:

WSU began competing as an independent following the breakup of the PCC, losing 20-6 to the California Bears.

June 30, 1959:

The Pacific Coast Conference was dissolved by the league's presidents.

December, 1960:

Gail Cogdill, in his first year with the Detroit Lions, was named the NFL Rookie of the Year.

November, 1961:

Wide receiver Hugh Campbell caught more passes in both 1960 and 1961 than any other college receiver.

June 13, 1962:

WSU was invited to join the American Association of Western Universities (formed following the end of the PCC in 1959) during their meeting at Victoria, British Columbia.

October 13, 1962:

WSU played its first game as a member of the AAUWU, beating Stanford 21-6 at Spokane.

September 20, 1969:

Mike Monahan's 22-yard field goal with 0:33 left to play gave WSU a 19-18 win at Illinois.

September 23, 1971:

Don Sweet kicked a 27-yard field goal as time expired to give WSU a 24-23 win over host Stanford.

October 30, 1976:

Eason Ramson caught a 14-yard pass from Jack Thompson with 19 seconds to play and Dan Doornink caught the game-winning two-point conversion pass from Thompson for a 23-22 win over host Oregon.

July 1, 1978:

The Pacific-8 Conference expanded to 10 teams and became known as the Pacific-10 Conference with the addition of Arizona and Arizona State.

September 23, 1978:

WSU opened Pac-10 play with a 51-26 win in Spokane over Arizona State in the Sun Devils' first game as a member of the expanded league.

December, 1978:

Jack Thompson became the first Cougar to finish in the Top 10 of the Heisman voting when he was ninth.

December 18, 1981:

WSU met BYU in the Holiday Bowl, losing 38-36. It was WSU's first bowl game since the 1931 Rose Bowl. Jim Walden was the head coach.

September 19, 1981:

The Cougars rallied from a 10-0 deficit at Colorado to win 14-10 in the second game of the year. Historians say this was the key game as WSU ended the year playing in the Holiday Bowl in San Diego.

November 21, 1981:

WSU lost to Washington 23-10 in the battle for the league title and a berth in the Rose Bowl, but within days the Cougars were invited to play in the Holiday Bowl.

November 20, 1982:

WSU captured a 24-20 win over No. 5 Washington, knocking the Huskies out of the Rose Bowl.

October 27, 1984:

Reuben Mayes set an NCAA record when he rushed for 357 yards in a 50-41 win at Oregon.

September 7, 1985:

WSU scored 20 points in the final 8:45 for a 20-19 win over visiting California. The game winner was a 6-yard pass from Mark Rypien to Rick Chase with 0:41 to play.

January 6, 1987:

Dennis Erickson was appointed WSU's new head coach, replacing Jim Walden.

December 25, 1988:

WSU made its first bowl appearance since 1981 with a 24-22 win over Houston in the Aloha Bowl. Dennis Erickson was the head coach.

October 29, 1988:

WSU rallied from behind to beat No. 1 UCLA at Pasadena 34-30. It was WSU's first win over a number one ranked team.

March 14, 1989:

Mike Price was named head coach, replacing Dennis Erickson.

September 23, 1989:

Paul Carr's 2-yard run and Jason Hanson's extra point with 0:41 to play gave WSU a 29-23 win at Wyoming. The Cougars recovered a Wyoming fumble with 2:38 to play and drove for the winning score.

September 28, 1991:

Jason Hanson, now with the Detroit Lions, kicked a 62-yard field goal at UNLV, at that time the longest college field goal ever kicked without benefit of a kicking tee.

September 12, 1992:

Aaron Price booted a 47-yard field goal with 0:31 to play to give WSU a 23-20 win at Arizona.

September 26, 1992:

Drew Bledsoe hit C.J. Davis with a 10-yard scoring pass with 0:41 to play, giving WSU a 39-37 win over host Fresno State.

December 29, 1992:

WSU defeated Utah in the Copper Bowl 31-28. Mike Price was the head coach.

April, 1993:

Drew Bledsoe became the first Cougar to be drafted number one when the New England Patriots made him the top selection in the 1993 NFL Draft.

December 31, 1994:

WSU defeated Baylor 10-3 in the Builders Square Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, Texas. Mike Price was the WSU head coach.

December 22, 1997:

WSU defeated Washington 41-35 in Seattle to clinch a tie for the Pac-10 title and a berth in the Rose Bowl. The Cougars finished the regular season 10-1 and were 7-1 in league play.

January 1, 1998:

WSU met No. 1 Michigan in the Rose Bowl, the Cougars' first Rose Bowl appearance since the 1930 season. The Mike Price-coached Cougars lost 21-16, driving for a score as time expired.

December 31, 2001:

WSU defeated Purdue 33-27 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas. WSU's head coach was Mike Price, who would later coach at UTEP.

December, 2001:

Lamont Thompson finished his career as the Pac-10 and WSU career record holder with 24 interceptions. Thompson capped his season by being named to the Associated Press All-America First Team.

December 7, 2002:

WSU defeated UCLA 48-27 at Pasadena to earn a berth in the Rose Bowl and a share of the Pac-10 title, finishing 10-2 overall, 7-1 in league play. WSU was coached by Mike Price.

December 18, 2002:

Bill Doba was introduced as WSU's new head coach, replacing Mike Price.

January 1, 2003:

WSU lost to Oklahoma 34-14 in the Rose Bowl, WSU's fourth appearance in the Rose Bowl and second in six years. The game was Mike Price's last as WSU's head coach.

December 30, 2003:

WSU defeated No. 5 Texas 28-20 in the Holiday Bowl. The game came 12 years after WSU's first Holiday Bowl appearance in 1981. WSU's head coach was Bill Doba.

November, 2005:

Jerome Harrison finished his two-year Cougar career by setting a WSU and Pac-10 record with 14 consecutive 100-yard rushing games and broke 12 WSU rushing records while receiving consensus All-America honors.

November 24, 2007:

Alex Brink threw five touchdown passes, the last one coming with 31 seconds in the game, as WSU posted a 42-35 win over Washington in the 100th meeting between the two schools. It also marked the third win in the past four years over the Huskies. Brink ended his career as the Cougars' all-time passing leader in yards, touchdowns, attempts, completions and total offense.

December 11, 2007:

Paul Wulff, who played at WSU from 1985-90, was named the University's 31st head coach, replacing Bill Doba.

May 1, 2008:

WSU great Reuben Mayes was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, becoming just the third Cougar student-athlete to be inducted, joining Mel Hein and Turk Edwards.

A QUARTERBACK TRADITION

Outland Trophy Winner

THE OUTLAND TROPHY

Rien Long became Washington State's first national individual award winner in 2002, winning the prestigious Outland Trophy at the ESPN College Football Awards Show held in Orlando, Fla.

The Outland Trophy is presented by the Football Writers' Association of America each year to the nation's outstanding collegiate interior lineman. It was first presented in 1946 to John Outland, an All-American tackle at the University of Pennsylvania.

Long paved the way toward the honor by dominating the line of scrimmage throughout his junior season. The Anacortes, Wash., native was the national leader among defensive tackles in sacks (13.0) and tackles-for-loss (21.5).

Long's most impressive sequence of the season came in the overtime period of Washington State's 30-27, Oct. 5 victory over USC. On back-to-back plays, Long sacked eventual Heisman Trophy winner Carson Palmer for a loss of seven yards, then brought running back Justin Fargas down five yards behind the line of scrimmage to force the Trojans into an unsuccessful 52-yard field goal. WSU's Drew Dunning would win the game with a 35-yard kick three plays later.

Long's play became impossible to ignore Nov. 2 when No. 16 Arizona State and No. 8 WSU clashed for the outright lead in the Pac-10. Once again, Long was a disruptive force, compiling four tackles-for-loss and three sacks in a 44-22 win that catapulted the Cougars toward the Pac-10 title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

WSU Cornerback Facts: The Cougars return just one player who saw action at cornerback last season, redshirt sophomore Aire Justin, who started six games in 2008. Redshirt junior Brandon Jones sat out last season after his transfer from California, while Daniel Simmons and Terrance Hayward redshirted the 2008 season. Redshirt junior Anthony Houston moved to the defensive side after spending his first three seasons as a wide receiver.

Wulff on WSU Cornerbacks: "At one time we thought we would have a lot of young bodies that could play there. Because of some things that have occurred our depth isn't as deep as we thought it was going to be, but we do have some capable players there. Daniel Simmons is a young cornerback that might be able to make a difference in his first year playing. Aire Justin can help us there as well. With some added strength and maturity Justin can be a bigger factor for us. Brandon Jones, a transfer from Cal who sat out last season due to NCAA transfer rules, will clearly have an opportunity to make a difference at corner. Chima Nwachukwu will have the ability to play a little corner and safety for us. He played corner his entire freshman year before moving to safety last season. And then who knows, we may have a freshman or two that will play in their first year."

WSU Safety Facts: Redshirt senior Xavier Hicks and junior Chima Nwachukwu anchor the safety position as both players have started a majority of games over the last two years. Hicks was second in tackles last year for the Cougars while adding two interceptions, and Nwachukwu moved from cornerback to free safety following his freshman season. Sophomore Tyree Toomer started the final four games last season, gaining valuable experience. In addition to the experience, the Cougars add youth with redshirt sophomore Eric Block, who has battled health issues the past two seasons, and redshirt freshmen Jay Matthews and LeAndre Daniels.

Wulff on WSU Safeties: "We have a good mix of veterans and youth at the safety position. We have three players who have a good deal of experience. It starts with Xavier Hicks, along with Chima (Nwachukwu) and Tyree Toomer. We also have two players who were hurt this spring that didn't help their development that have the ability to be contributors and they are LeAndre Daniels and Jay Matthews. Both of those guys unfortunately had injuries in the spring and as redshirt freshmen they really needed to participate. Those two need to fit into the depth. And then Eric Block is the wildcard. He needs to step up and be healthy to give us another capable player in there."

WSU Linebacker Facts: This is another position that has a mix of youth and experience. Senior Andy Mattingly returns to the outside linebacker position after playing defensive end in 2008. In 2007 Mattingly had 91 tackles and led WSU with eight sacks, earning All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors. Redshirt sophomore Alex Hoffman-Ellis and sophomore Mike Ledgerwood will compete at the middle linebacker position. Ledgerwood saw action in 10 games as a true freshman while Hoffman-Ellis redshirted last year after transferring from Moorpark College. Sophomore Louis Bland gained valuable experience last season as a true freshman, starting nine games and collecting 55 tackles. Redshirt junior Myron Beck, who started nine games in 2008 (six at linebacker), junior Hallston Higgins and redshirt senior Jason Stripling, who has battled injuries each of the last three years, will add experience and depth.

Wulff on WSU Linebackers: "This was a veteran position last year. Health is the key as we have seniors Andy Mattingly and Jason Stripling that can play there, but have been nicked-up. If they can stay healthy it is going to allow us to build some excellent depth and really groom this position for the upcoming years. We have some young players there that need to play but maybe aren't ready to play every snap in the Pac-10. We have Louis Bland returning, who we expect to have a big year. Myron Beck is back in the mix, along with Alex Hoffman-Ellis, Mike Ledgerwood and Josh Garrett, who had a nice spring and made a difference for us. It is a group where a lot of players are going to have an opportunity to prove themselves. Hallston Higgins is another one. They all are going to have an opportunity to play on special teams and prove themselves at the linebacker position."

Kevin Kooyman

WSU Defensive Line Facts: The defensive line is a mix of veterans and youth. At the defensive end position, senior Kevin Kooyman returns after starting six games in 2008 and the Cougars get back redshirt senior Jesse Feagin, who redshirted the 2008 campaign after seeing action in 10 games in 2007. Redshirt freshman Adam Coerper was named WSU's Defensive Scout Team Player of the Year in 2008 while junior Casey Hamlett had a strong spring practice after transferring from Western Washington. A solid core of incoming freshmen may also find playing time. At the defensive tackle position, redshirt junior Toby Turpin anchors the position after starting the final four games of 2008. A trio of redshirt juniors will make their Cougar debuts as Bernard Wolfggramm and Jessy Sanchez return from injuries that forced them to miss all of last season, and Josh Luapo arrived in January 2009, and went through spring practices. Redshirt freshmen Dan Spitz and Anthony Laurenzi will have the opportunity to contribute.

Wulff on WSU Defensive Line: "We have some young athletes at this position that have some capability but there is not a lot of experience. There is some ability that can make something happen and develop. Talking about our most experienced players you have to start with Kevin Kooyman at defensive end. Toby Turpin came on late last year and really took big steps in his development and Jesse Feagin has played some football at this level and has experience. Casey Hamlett showed some things in spring football. We need Josh Luapo, Bernard Wolfggramm, Anthony Laurenzi and Daniel Spitz to step up and help us. You may see some first-year players come in this fall and that may add depth. Obviously the loss of Cory Mackay is a big blow to that position and that will be something we have to overcome as a unit and a team."

WSU Offensive Line Facts: One of the most experienced units on the team, led by fifth-year senior Kenny Alfred, who has started 32 of his 37 games in a WSU uniform. A Rimington Award candidate each of the last three years, Alfred heads an offensive line that returns seven players that started games last season. Junior Micah Hannam has started all 25 games the last two years, while redshirt sophomores B.J. Guerra (5 starts in 2008) and Steven Ayers (5), redshirt juniors Brian Danaher (8) and Joe Eppele (2) and junior Andrew Roxas (8) all saw starting action in 2008. The addition of redshirt junior Zach Williams, who spent 2008 as a redshirt, gives the Cougars a deep, experienced front line.

Kenny Alfred

Wulff on WSU Offensive Line: "We only lose one player from last year and seven players return who started games last season, led by an all-conference candidate in senior Kenny Alfred. Kenny is where it all starts. He has the most game experience and is a very good football player. He's going to need his guys around him and we have some experience returning. Micah Hannam at right tackle returns and is a player who has started every game his first two years and brings a lot of experience. B.J. Guerra, Brian Danaher, Andrew Roxas and Steven Ayers all started games last year. Then you add Zach Williams, a junior college transfer who we redshirted last year, along with Joe Eppele, who needs to step up and play well. Those are all players who can help this football team and we need those guys to continue to develop and mature. Another name to watch is Tyson Pencer, a redshirt freshman who could help us as well."

WSU Quarterback Facts: In 2008 the Cougar quarterback position was devastated by injuries. Three different players started games and five different quarterbacks took snaps in a game. Redshirt senior Kevin Lopina started eight games, missing four due to a back injury. Redshirt sophomore Marshall Lobbestael started three of his five games played before suffering a season-ending knee injury. Sophomore J.T. Levenseller saw action in four games late in the season that will benefit him in 2009 as he battles for playing time.

Wulff on WSU Quarterbacks: "The nice thing about the quarterback group is we will have three quarterbacks (Kevin Lopina, Marshall Lobbestael and J.T. Levenseller) who have taken snaps in games where those three players at this time last year had never taken a snap in college football. The expectations are they all will be improved and truly should be able to now lead us down the field and put us in a position to score points and more importantly, take care of the football. Securing the football is their number one goal. All those guys should improve in that area and should be an excellent competition between the three veteran players."

WSU Running Backs Facts: Entering the 2009 campaign this may be the deepest position on the Cougar roster. Senior Dwight Tardy returns after leading the Cougars in rushing each of his first three years. Redshirt juniors James Montgomery, who sat out last season after transferring from California, and Marcus Richmond, who saw action in all 13 games last season, along with redshirt sophomore Logwone Mitz, who rushed for 441 yards and three touchdowns last season, will all battle for extended playing time. Seniors Chris Ivory and Chantz Staden are recovering from injuries during the 2008 season and could have an impact if healthy.

Wulff on WSU Running Backs: "We have some players that have played college football. Obviously Dwight Tardy has the most experience out of all of them, Logwone Mitz and Marcus Richmond have a little bit, and James Montgomery has a little bit from his freshman year at Cal. They all still can improve a lot more on game day. They all have a lot to prove and it should be a great competition. Whoever is playing the best is probably going to see the most playing time. All will have an opportunity to play, but at the same time if someone is playing real well we have to go with the hot hand. It's a diverse group as we have the ability to get to the edge with speed, have the ability to run downhill with power and can catch the ball out of the backfield. There is something there we can work with."

Tony Thompson

Wulff on WSU Tight Ends: "This is an area where we need to have players step up for us. Particularly the young tight ends in redshirt freshmen Skylar Stormo and Andrei Lintz. We are counting on those two to produce and help us. We have been impressed with Tony Thompson, who is a versatile tight end; we can do a lot of things with Tony which gives us a lot of flexibility. WSU Wide Receiver Facts: With the loss of a wide receiver to the NFL in each of the last three seasons, the Cougars are young at the position heading into 2009. Despite the youth, there is starting experience at each of the three positions. Junior Daniel Blackledge and sophomores Kevin Norrell and Jared Karstetter enter the season atop the depth chart. Blackledge has 10 catches and 91 yards in his first two seasons while Norrell and Karstetter each started multiple games in 2008. Junior college transfer Johnny Forzani, a speedy receiver who played with the practice squad of the Calgary Stampeders (CFL), winning Rookie of the Year and Most Outstanding Receiver with the club's junior team, junior Jeshua Anderson, who has started 12 games in two seasons and is the team's top returning pass catcher from 2008, and redshirt junior Jeffrey Solomon, who transferred to WSU from Eastern Washington and sat out last season due to NCAA transfer rules, will all play a big role in this year's receiving corps. Easton Johnson makes the switch to wide receiver after playing safety last season. Due to the relative youth at the receiver positions, newcomers Dominique Jackson and Gino Simone – considered by a number of publications to be the top prospect in the state of Washington last year – will each have a shot to earn playing time early in their Cougar careers.

Wulff on WSU Wide Receivers: "A lot of young guys. It is really a position we have tried to overhaul and there are a lot of new faces that will have to play. We are still relatively inexperienced in some regards in terms of total amount of playing time in their career on gamedays. There are a few that have some experience: Jared Karstetter, Daniel Blackledge, Kevin Norrell and Jeshua Anderson. Those guys have played a little bit. We add Johnny Forzani, who hasn't played much but will add some athleticism to the group, along with Jeffrey Solomon and Gino Simone. There is a core of players that need to work very hard, but they have a great attitude so we are excited to watch their development over the next few years."

KICKERS/PUNTERS

NO	NAME	HGT	WGT	YR	EXP
8	FORREST, Reid	6-0	193	JR*	2V
18	GRASU, Nico	6-0	221	JR	1V
29	ROONEY, Patrick	5-11	202	SR*	1V
63	ENYEART, Zach (LS)	6-1	265	JR*	2V

WSU Special Teams Facts: This will be one of the Cougars' deepest positions this season. Redshirt junior Reid Forrest will again handle the punting duties after averaging more than 41 yards per punt last year, including 10 of 50-plus yards. Junior Nico Grasu, whose three field goals in the Apple Cup last year led WSU to victory, will compete with senior Patrick Rooney for the kicking duties. Grasu hit 9-of-13 attempts last season.

Wulff on WSU Special Teams: "Reid Forrest had a solid offseason getting bigger and stronger. Last season he started the year with a broken ankle and that slowed his development and his progress. Reid is a good punter and he can only get better. We expect big things from him this year: field position and consistency out of the position are very important. Dan Wagner, listed on the depth chart at quarterback, will again back up Reid this year. Junior kicker Nico Grasu has proven himself, though he needs to continue developing his consistency. He has all the tools to be an outstanding kicker. Senior Pat Rooney is another that will battle with Nico for our kickoffs. Both have strong legs, both have experience. We expect that position to perform well for our team. (Long snapper) Zach Enyeart, a redshirt junior, was honored with a scholarship this summer because he has been a two-year starter. He has given us a lot of consistency and the kickers really trust him with the snaps for punts and field goals. The backup could be a couple people, either Kevin Baffney or Chris Prummer."

2009 Coaches

Paul Wulff

Head Coach

Second Season

Paul Wulff enters his second spring season on the Cougar sideline after being named Washington's State's 31st head coach, Dec. 10, 2007. With his appointment Wulff became the first WSU football letterwinner and graduate to lead the Cougars since Phil Sarboe served as head coach from 1945-49.

A 1990 graduate of WSU and a four-year letterwinner, Wulff's first season leading the Cougars proved difficult as the transition to a new head coach combined with numerous injuries resulting in a 2-11 record. WSU's lone conference win came in dramatic fashion as the Cougars needed a last second field goal in regulation and two overtimes to defeat Washington 16-13 in the Apple Cup.

Wulff spent the previous 15 seasons at Eastern Washington University, the final eight as head coach. There he amassed a record of 53-40. During his eight-year head coaching tenure Wulff was named Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year three times (2001, 2004, 2005) and led the Eagles into the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs three times in the last four years. He enters the 2009 campaign with a 55-51 career head coaching record in nine seasons.

In 2007 he guided the Eagles to a 9-4 mark, including a quarterfinal appearance at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision Playoffs, falling to two-time defending champion Appalachian State. It marked the seventh time in his eight years at Eastern that his teams posted winning records.

"Obviously this has been a dream of mine since I joined the coaching profession," said Wulff upon his hiring. "It is my alma mater, a university with great tradition and a program I feel very strongly about. WSU is an important place in my development as a human being with respect to the university culture. Being named head coach is the biggest honor I have ever received and I am excited about the opportunity.

"Twenty-two years ago, in February of 1985, I signed a letter of intent to Washington State University. I was obligated to that, and I committed to it, and I chose this university over five other Pac-10 schools at that time. I am back 22 years later, and I am committed for another five years. I will make the most of it and do everything in my power to create an environment that everyone who is a Cougar can be proud of.

"It's going to take some work," Wulff continued. "There is some building we need to do and some culture changes we need to make. We need to put ourselves in a position where everybody can be proud of the student-athletes in this program both on and off the field on a consistent basis."

Wulff began his coaching career at EWU in 1993 as a volunteer assistant working with the offensive line. He was named offensive line/strength coach the following season and spent four years in the position before being promoted to offensive coordinator/offensive line/strength coach in 1998.

Following two seasons as the team's offensive coordinator, Wulff was named head coach at Eastern prior to the 2000 season. He guided the Eagles to six straight winning seasons and seven overall during his eight-year tenure.

Wulff's 2005 team was loaded with experience, talent and leadership, featuring a group of seniors that included the Big Sky's Offensive and Defensive MVP's (Erik Meyer and Joey Cwik), and featured a trio of All-Americans (Meyer, Eric Kimble and Matt Alfred). Meyer would go on to win the Walter Payton Award as the best football player in the Football Championship Subdivision. Together, Meyer and Kimble rewrote Eastern's record book as they combined for 27 school records and four Big Sky marks. Meyer set a FCS record for passing efficiency rating (166.47 with 10,261 yards, 84 touchdowns, just 17 interceptions and a .657 completion rate), while Kimble's 46 touchdown grabs ranked second in FCS history behind the 50 of legendary Jerry Rice. The Eagles finished 7-5 and won the Big Sky title with a 5-2 record before losing to eventual national runner-up Northern Iowa in the first round of the playoffs.

The 2004 season was also special, even after the Eagles opened the season 0-2. Eastern won eight of its next nine games - most by substantial margins - as the Eagles closed the year with a 51-44 overtime victory at Montana State to secure a place in the playoffs. Quarterback Erik Meyer was named the league's Offensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award. Senior offensive tackle Michael Roos joined Meyer, wide receiver Eric Kimble and guard Rocky Hanni as All-Americans, with Roos eventually being taken in the second round of the NFL draft by the Tennessee Titans.

In 2004, Wulff's squad finished 9-4 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the playoffs. The crowning glory came when the Eagles knocked off No. 1-ranked and top-seeded Southern Illinois in the first round.

Statistically, the 2004 and 2005 teams were nearly identical with each finishing the year ranked fourth in FCS in total offense. In 2005 the Eagles averaged 477.8 yards per game, and were 14th in scoring (35.0). A year earlier the Eagles averaged 475.5 yards and 37.5 points per game to rank sixth.

Wulff coached 21 players to 54 Football Championship Subdivision (formerly Division I-AA) All-America honors in his first seven years at the helm of the EWU program, and two more of his players were named to the Sports Network's 2007 FCS All-America team at the conclusion of last year. Of the 21 players to earn All-America recognition, 15 have been offensive lineman.

Additionally, Wulff has mentored 15 players who have earned 18 total CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII honors and a total of 131 All-Big Sky Conference Academic team members.

As a student-athlete and four-year starter at center for the Cougars from 1986-89, Wulff was an All-America honoree himself as a senior, earning honorable mention accolades from The Sporting News. Wulff started at center under three different coaches after redshirting in 1985. He played for Jim Walden in 1986, Dennis Erickson from 1987-88 and Mike Price in 1989. He was also the starting center on WSU's 1988 Aloha Bowl championship team.

After a successful collegiate career Wulff had a brief pro career as a center after graduating from Washington State University in 1990. He signed a free agent contract with the New York Jets, but was released after injuring an ankle and a rib in the preseason. He played in spring 1991 with Raleigh-Durham of the World League, then played in spring 1992 with New York-New Jersey.

A 1985 graduate of Davis High School in Davis, Calif., Wulff played for three different coaches while he was at WSU. He redshirted in 1985 and started four games at guard in 1986 under Jim Walden.

Dennis Erickson directed the program in 1987 and 1988 with Wulff as his starting center both years. In 1988, the Cougars were victorious in the Aloha Bowl as Wulff earned honorable mention All-Pacific-10 Conference honors.

Under Mike Price in 1989, Wulff earned second-team all-conference honors and was an honorable mention selection on The Sporting News All-America squad. He was also WSU's long snapper during his stay there.

Wulff was born Feb. 25, 1967, in Woodland, Calif. He and his wife Sherry have a 14-year-old daughter, Katie, and two sons, six-year-old Max and three-year-old Sam.

Chris Ball

Assistant Head Coach
Co-Defensive Coordinator
Safeties

Second Season

Chris Ball is in his second year as Washington State's Assistant Head Coach and Co-Defensive Coordinator. Ball, in his third coaching stint in Pullman, also works with WSU's safeties.

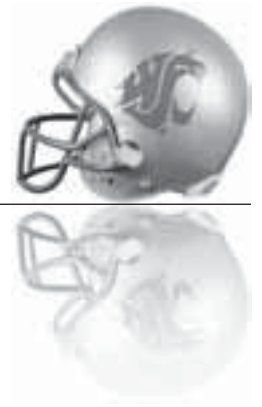

Ball returned to Pullman after spending the 2007 season as secondary coach at the University of Pittsburgh under head coach Dave Wannstedt. During his only campaign the Panthers ranked fourth nationally in pass defense (167.3 ypg) and seventh in total defense (297.7 ypg).

Prior to that Ball served four seasons coaching the secondary at Alabama, having moved from Pullman when Mike Price was named head coach at Alabama following the 2002 season. While at Alabama, Ball coached a Crimson Tide secondary that in 2004 led the nation in pass defense, allowing just 113.1 passing yards per game. That same year Alabama ranked second in pass efficiency defense.

The following season the Alabama secondary ranked fifth in both pass defense (160.8 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (97.8 rating), and the Crimson Tide ranked second nationally in total defense. In 2006 Ball oversaw the progress of free safety Roman Harper, who earned All-SEC honors and was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, presented annually to the nation's top defensive back. That year he was also named one of Rivals.com's Top 10 recruiters in the country.

From 2000-02 Ball served under Price coaching WSU's defensive backs, mentoring such Cougar greats as Lamont Thompson, Jason David, Marcus Trufant and Erik Coleman. During his three seasons WSU's defense compiled 56 interceptions, including 26 during the 2001 campaign, which tied for second nationally. That season Thompson set a WSU single-season record and led the Pacific-10 Conference with 10 interceptions en route to All-America honors.

The following season Trufant earned first-team All-Pac-10 and second-team All-America honors under the tutelage of Ball. Trufant, who was drafted 11th overall by the Seahawks in 2003, was part of a secondary that included three other current NFL players: David (New Orleans), Coleman (Atlanta) and Hamza Abdullah (Cleveland).

The St. Louis, Mo., native and 1981 graduate of Webster Grove High played football at Missouri Western State College and later served as a graduate assistant and defensive coordinator at his alma mater.

The 1985 All-American defensive back coached at both Northeast Missouri State (1986-87) and Akron (1987-88) before joining Price's staff in 1989. He coached at Coffeyville Community College (1990-94), Western Oregon State College (1995-96) and Missouri Western State (1997-98). Prior to joining the Cougar staff in 2000, Ball spent the 1999 season as defensive coordinator for Idaho State Head Coach Larry Lewis.

Ball and his wife Tandi have two children, son Brennan (16) and daughter Abigail (5).

Steve Broussard

Running Backs
Special Teams

Third Season

One of WSU's all-time great running backs, Steve Broussard returned to his alma mater in January of 2007 as running backs coach under then head coach Bill Doba. Broussard added special teams coordinator to his title when former teammate Paul Wulff was named head coach in December 2007, and he is in his second season working in the same capacity.

Broussard arrived at WSU after spending the previous three seasons at Portland State, the first as running backs coach and the following two in charge of wide receivers. In 2004 the Vikings led the Big Sky in rushing, averaging 204.4 yards per game. The following season he coached Shaun Bodiford to All-Big Sky honors while developing a young group of receivers.

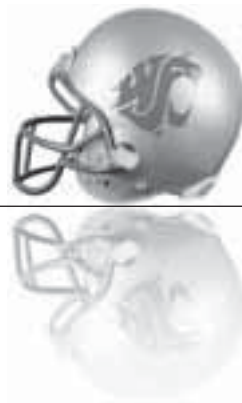

Prior to Portland State, Broussard spent four years as a high school coach, the final two as head coach at Diamond Ranch High School in Pomona, Calif. Broussard's coaching career began in 2000 as offensive coordinator at Don Lugo High School in Chino, Calif., before moving to a similar role at Diamond Ranch in 2001.

Broussard was the 20th overall pick in the 1990 draft by the Atlanta Falcons where he spent the first four years of his NFL career. He spent the 1994 season with the Cincinnati Bengals then the final four years of his career with the Seattle Seahawks. Over his nine-year career, Broussard rushed for 2,625 yards and 19 touchdowns while catching 126 passes for 882 yards and three scores.

During his four-year Cougar career, Broussard was known as the most versatile back in WSU history. He completed his career third on the all-time rushing list, fifth on the career receiving list and owned two of the top three single-season rushing marks. At one point he held nine WSU career or single-season records and finished seventh on the Pac-10 career list with 4,635 all-purpose yards.

Broussard rushed for 100-plus yards 14 times in his WSU career, third most in school history. That included a career-high 205 yards against Oregon in 1989.

Broussard is the father of daughter Talin, son Steve Jr., and one-year-old daughter Kendra.

Harold Etheridge

Offensive Line

Second Season

Harold Etheridge is in his 20th year in the collegiate coaching ranks, and his second as Washington State's offensive line coach.

Before joining the WSU staff, Etheridge served as the offensive line coach at Northern Illinois during the 2007 season. There he coached tackle John Brost, an All-Mid American Conference and MAC All-Academic selection.

Prior to Northern Illinois, Etheridge spent three seasons as the offensive line coach at the University of North Texas. During his first season the Mean Green led the Sun Belt Conference and ranked 23rd nationally in rushing offense at 196.3 ypg, paced by nation's leader Jamario Thomas at 180.1 ypg and 2004 NCAA rushing leader Patrick Cobbs. In 2005 Thomas again rushed for 1,000 yards while the offensive line ranked among the league leaders in fewest sacks allowed. North Texas linemen earned five all-conference honors in his three seasons at the school.

Etheridge is no stranger to members of the Cougar staff, having served alongside current Cougar assistants Sears and Niekamp while all three were on Todd Berry's staff at Army. Etheridge spent four seasons as the Black Knights' offensive line coach (2000-03), where in 2001 and 2002 Army led Conference USA in fewest sacks allowed. In 2000, the offensive line paced the way for Michael Wallace, whose 115.7 ypg were tops in Conference USA and 16th nationally.

From 1991-99 Etheridge served as the offensive line coach at Illinois State under head coach Jim Heacock (1991-95) and Todd Berry (1996-99). The 1998 squad reached the Football Championship Subdivision Playoffs while the 1999 team advanced to the national semifinals after capturing the Gateway Conference title. That team finished the year ranked No. 3. During his nine seasons Etheridge coached eight players to 12 all-conference honors and two players, Mike Rodbro and Andy Ziebarth, to All-America status.

Throughout his coaching career Etheridge has coached four All-Americans, 10 all-conference performers and two current NFL players.

The Gallup, N.M., native began his Division I coaching career in 1989 at Kentucky, where he spent three seasons as a graduate assistant coach working with the offensive tackles.

He spent seven seasons in the prep coaching ranks at Gallup (N.M.) HS (1983-86) and Louisville's Ballard (Ky.) HS (1987-89). At Gallup, his teams made four playoff appearances and were district champs each year.

Etheridge was a four-year starting offensive guard for Western New Mexico (1979-82), garnering all-conference honors after his junior and senior seasons. Following graduation, Etheridge had free agent tryouts with the Houston Oilers and Detroit Lions, before spending two seasons as the offensive line coach at Western New Mexico in 1982 and 1983. He earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from the school in 1982.

Etheridge and his wife, Jeanne, are the parents of twins Clayton and Eliza (12).

(1987-89); Gallup High School, N.M. (1983-86); Offensive Line, Western New Mexico (1982-83).

Mike Levenseller

Wide Receivers

18th Season

The senior statesman on the Washington State coaching staff, Mike Levenseller is in his 18th year on the Cougar sideline, where he serves as wide receivers coach on Paul Wulff's staff.

Levenseller has been with WSU since the beginning of the 1992 season, when he began working with Cougar wide receivers under then-head coach Mike Price. Prior to the 2001 season, Levenseller added offensive coordinator duties to his day-to-day work with wide receivers. As the offensive coordinator, the Cougar pass offense finished in the top 21 nationally each season, including eighth in 2007, 10th in 2001 and 13th in 2002. WSU finished in the top 20 nationally in total offense in each of his first two years as coordinator, including an eighth-place finish in 2005.

Levenseller and eight other receivers he has coached comprise WSU's single-season top 10 receiving yardage list, including Brandon Gibson, who set the single-season record with 1,180 receiving yards in 2007. Under Levenseller's guidance, Jason Hill broke the 1,000-yard mark twice (2005-06), becoming the only WSU receiver with two 1,000-yard campaigns.

Additionally, five different receivers have recorded 1,000-yard seasons under Levenseller, while 11 different players have spent time with NFL clubs.

Prior to returning to Washington State, Levenseller coached wide receivers for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League (1990-91), where he mentored the league's receiver of the year in 1990 (Darrell Smith) and 1991 (Raghib Ismail). He began his coaching career in 1986 with the British Columbia Lions of the CFL, working with wide receivers as a guest coach.

A sixth-round draft pick by the Oakland Raiders of the 1978 NFL Draft, Levenseller spent three years in the NFL with Buffalo, Tampa Bay and Cincinnati, was a member of the Grey Cup-winning Edmonton Eskimos in 1982 and concluded his playing career with Calgary, 1983-85, of the CFL.

Levenseller completed his WSU playing career by being selected to the Pacific-8 First Team, the AP All-West Coast First Team and the AP All-America honorable mention squad in 1978. A two-time All-Pac-8 and AP All-West Coach First Team selection, Levenseller caught 121 passes in his career, which ranked third on WSU's all-time list and eighth on the league list. His 2,061 career receiving yards ranked second on WSU's all-time list, as he was one of only seven receivers to top 2,000 yards in Pac-8 history.

In 1992 he was inducted into the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame, and in 2006 was inducted into the Pacific Northwest Football Hall of Fame. Levenseller and his wife, Allison, have a son J.T., who is a sophomore quarterback at WSU, and daughter Jordan (17).

Travis Niekamp

Linebackers

Second Season

When Paul Wulff began putting his staff together after being named Washington State University's head football coach in December 2007, he didn't have to look far for his linebackers coach. Travis Niekamp, who coached linebackers on Wulff's staff at Eastern Washington University from 2004-07, arrived with Wulff in Pullman in a similar role. Niekamp, now in his second year at WSU, is one of five former EWU coaches from Wulff's staff at Eastern Washington now serving on the Cougars' coaching staff.

In his first year in Pullman, Niekamp coached Louis Bland to Phil Steele's Freshman All-America Third Team honors and Greg Trent to his second mention on the All-Pacific-10 Conference Team.

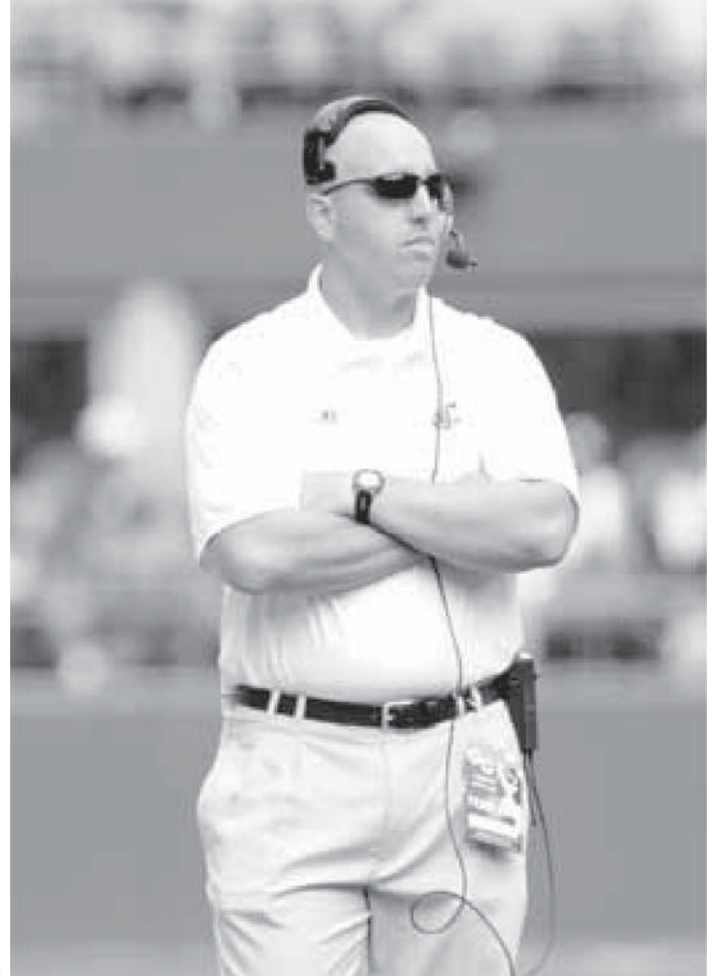

In his first year at Eastern he coached a pair of All-Big Sky Conference linebackers in Joey Cwik (first team) and Doug Vincent (honorable mention). In 2005 Cwik repeated as a first team all-conference pick and was named the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year, capping a career that saw him register 331 tackles, fourth-best in school history. Also in 2005 David Eneberg was an all-conference honorable mention selection, which he repeated in 2006. In all Niekamp coached eight different players to 10 All-Big Sky Conference honors

Before joining the Eastern Washington staff in 2004, Niekamp spent the previous four years at the United States Military Academy, where he coached tight ends. While with the Black Knights, he coached with current WSU co-defensive coordinator Jody Sears for three seasons.

Prior to his stint at Army, Niekamp spent two seasons at his alma mater Illinois State, coaching outside linebackers in 1999 and defensive tackles in 1998. He was an All-Gateway Conference selection in 1996 and 1997, when he played as a defensive lineman, finishing his career with 170 tackles. That figure included eight quarterback sacks and 22 total tackles-for-loss.

Niekamp was team captain as a senior and was a regular member of the Athletic Director's Honor Roll during his undergraduate days at Illinois State. He graduated from Illinois State in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science.

A native of Stevens Point, Wis., Niekamp was selected as a National Strength and Conditioning All-American in 1997. In high school, he played in the Wisconsin All-Star Shrine Classic. He and his wife Tracy have two sons, Tye Dalton (5) and Dexter Kole (3), and daughter Brooke Ryan (2).

TRAVIS NIEKAMP FILE

Born: November 30, 1974, St. Henry, Ohio

Education: B.S. in exercise science from Illinois State, 1998.

Personal: Wife, Tracy, sons Tye and Dexter, daughter Brooke.

Coaching Experience – 12th Season. Linebackers, Washington State University (2008-Present); Linebackers, Eastern Washington University (2004-07); Tight Ends, United State Military Academy (2000-03); Linebackers/Defensive Tackles, Illinois State (1998-99).

Rich Rasmussen

Tight Ends
Recruiting Coordinator
Second Season

Rich Rasmussen made the move to Washington State with Cougar Head Coach Paul Wulff in December 2007, after the two worked together as members of the Eastern Washington Eagles staff for 12 years. Rasmussen, now in his second year at WSU serving as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator, had spent the previous eight years as an assistant for Wulff.

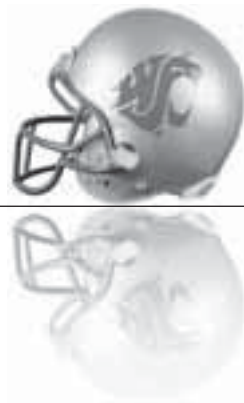

Rasmussen began coaching at Eastern Washington in 1996 as a student assistant coach on defense, then helped with the offensive line in 1997. He coached running backs in 1998 before taking over as tight ends coach in 1999, a position he held through the 2007 season. During his stint at Eastern Washington he spent time as director of football operations, recruiting coordinator, team travel coordinator and summer camp coordinator, in addition to his coaching duties.

Throughout his tenure overseeing tight ends at Eastern Washington, Rasmussen coached six different players to All-Big Sky honors, including Tim Calhoun, who was a three-time honoree, including the 2002 Big Sky Freshman of the Year by Dopke.com. He oversaw the development of Dan Curley, a 2002 All-America honorable mention by Football Gazette and was a fifth round draft pick (148th overall) by the St. Louis Rams in the 2003 NFL Draft.

While at Eastern Washington, Rasmussen earned both his undergraduate and graduate degrees. He received his bachelors of science degree in physical education in 1998, and then completed his master's degree in athletic administration in 2000.

Rasmussen received an associate degree from Tacoma Community College in 1997 and is a 1983 graduate of Lincoln High School in Tacoma, Wash. He coached at Bellarmine Prep and Mt. Tahoma High Schools prior to joining the EWU staff.

A native of Tacoma, Wash., Rasmussen and his wife, Teri, have two sons, Josh (13) and Jacob (10).

RICH RASMUSSEN FILE

Malik Roberson

Defensive Line

Second Season

Malik Roberson made the move to Washington State University with Cougar Head Coach Paul Wulff in December 2007, after spending eight years with Wulff at Eastern Washington University, and is in his second season working with the Cougar defensive linemen.

He spent his first two seasons as an Eagle student assistant working with defensive linemen, then six years as the defensive line coach.

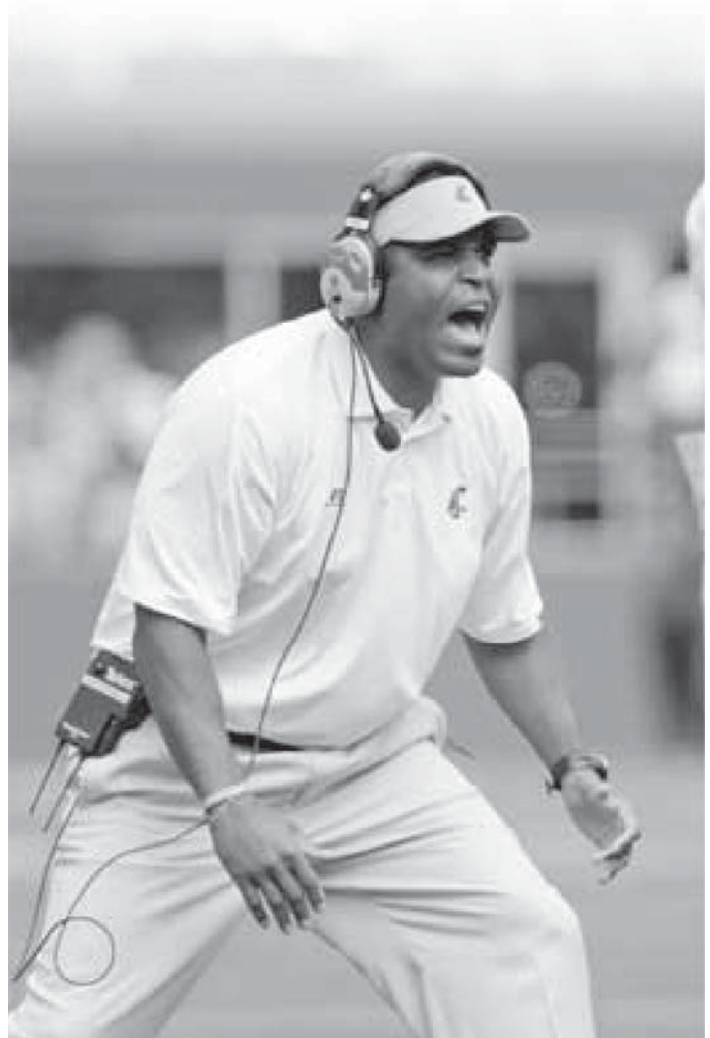

Throughout his time at EWU, Roberson coached nine players to All-Big Sky Conference honors, including 2006 defensive tackle Keith Grennan, who signed a free agent contract with the San Diego Chargers following his time at Eastern Washington. In 2007 all four starting defensive linemen earned all-conference honors, including second team All-American Greg Peach. In 2004 three of his defensive linemen earned All-Big Sky Conference honors, including first team selection Tom Finnerty. EWU finished that season ranked 38th in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision in rushing defense, allowing just 137.0 yards per game.

Roberson is no stranger to the WSU campus, spending three seasons in Pullman before transferring to Central Washington. He redshirted at WSU as a freshman in 1989, then played for the Cougars during the 1990 and 1991 seasons, seeing action as both a linebacker and defensive lineman. He was a teammate of current Cougar co-defensive coordinator Jody Sears during his first two years in Pullman. At Central Washington, he earned first-team all-conference honors in 1994 and was co-captain of the 1995 squad that won the NAIA Championships, finishing 10-3-1.

Injuries late in his career impacted Roberson's opportunity to continue his football career. He was oft-injured during his senior year at CWU and attended the NFL combine following his final season, but a neck injury ended his professional aspirations.

Roberson is a 1989 graduate of Lewis and Clark High School in Spokane and spent three seasons coaching the Tigers linebackers, first in 1992 and 1993 between his Cougar and Wildcat careers, then again in the fall of 1999 before joining the EWU staff.

Roberson, who finished his degree at Eastern Washington, was born in Spokane, Wash. He and his wife Ondria have one son, Nick (19), and twin daughters Madison and Makayla, who were born in December 2008.

MALIK ROBERSON FILE

Born: April 30, 1971 in Spokane, Wash.

Education: B.S. in individual studies: youth lifestyle management from Central Washington, 2001.

Personal: Wife, Ondria, son Nick and twin daughters Madison and Makayla.

Coaching Experience – 13th Season. Defensive Line, Washington State University (2008-Present); Defensive Line (2002-07), Student Assistant/Defensive Line (2000-01), both at Eastern Washington University; Lewis and Clark High School, Spokane (1992-93, 1999).

Jody Sears

Co-Defensive Coordinator Cornerbacks

Second Season

Jody Sears, a 1991 graduate of Washington State University and former college teammate of Cougar head coach Paul Wulff, is in his second year as co-defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach. Sears returned to his alma mater after five years at Eastern Washington University, where he was Wulff's defensive coordinator.

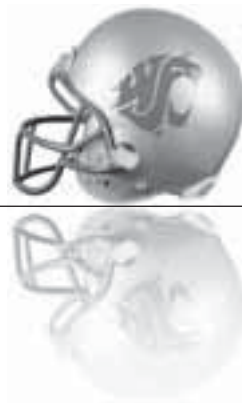

During his stint with the Eagles, he coached safeties, linebackers and defensive ends. In 2005 Eastern's defense finished 15th nationally in pass efficiency defense and spending most of the year in the top five. The Eagles were 45th in scoring defense in 2005 and his 2004 defense set a school record with nine sacks against Weber State.

During his EWU tenure, Sears coached seven players to All-Big Sky Conference honors, including 2007 first-team pick defensive end Greg Peach. Peach, who ranked 11th nationally in sacks, was also a second-team All-America selection.

Prior to uniting with Wulff at EWU, Sears was an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy in West Point, N.Y. He served three years on the Black Knight staff, including the 2001 and 2002 season as cornerbacks coach. In 2000, during his rookie year with Army, he assisted with the defensive line.

Sears lettered twice for the Cougars after walking on as a wide receiver. Like Wulff, he played under head coaches Jim Walden, Dennis Erickson and Mike Price during his tenure with the Cougars. He saw limited field duty during the early portion of his Cougar career, then lettered his final two years and finished with 11 career receptions for 118 yards. Sears also served as the holder for All-America placekicker Jason Hansen on field goal and extra point attempts during his senior year.

Following a brief coaching stint at the high school level, Sears served as a graduate assistant at Iowa State University, where he helped coach defensive backs and wide receivers from 1994-96. There he was reunited with former WSU coach Jim Walden, who was in his final season coaching the Cyclones. Sears received his master's degree at Iowa State in 1996.

Sears coached at St. Ambrose University in 1998 and 1999, assuming responsibilities as the defensive coordinator for the Fighting Bees, who were coached by Todd Sturdy, now WSU's offensive coordinator. Also serving on that staff was former Cougar assistant coach Timm Rosenbach.

Sears was born Oct. 21, 1967. He is from Pullman, Wash., and graduated from Pullman High School in 1986. He and his wife Molly have five children, Weston (19), Hannah Jo (7), J.T. (6), Kylee Ann (4) and Charlie Ray (3).

Coaching Experience – 15th Season. Co-Defensive Coordinator/Cornerbacks, Washington State University (2008-Present), Defensive Ends/Linebackers/Safeties, Eastern Washington University (2003-07); Cornerbacks (2001-02), Defensive Line (2000), University State Military Academy; Defensive Coordinator, St. Ambrose University (1998-99); Graduate Assistant/Defensive Backs/Wide Receivers, Iowa State University (1994-96).

Todd Sturdy

Offensive Coordinator Quarterbacks

Second Season

Todd Sturdy is in his second season as Washington State's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. A former head coach at St. Ambrose University, Sturdy joined the WSU staff in 2008 after serving as Paul Wulff's offensive coordinator at Eastern Washington during the 2007 season.

During his one year at EWU, where the Eagles went 9-4 and reached the 2008 FCS quarterfinals before falling to eventual champion Appalachian State, Sturdy guided an offense that set school records for pass completions (287) and touchdown passes (36). EWU finished the 2007 campaign fifth nationally in total offense and eighth in passing offense. Quarterback Matt Nichols was named the Big Sky Offensive Player of the Year while wide receiver Aaron Boyce and offensive lineman Matt Alfred each garnered All-America honors, with Boyce being named to the second team and Alfred the third team.

Prior to EWU, Sturdy was 85-40 in 12 seasons as head coach for his alma mater, St. Ambrose University, in Davenport, Iowa. The winningest coach in the program's history, his teams won five Mid-States Football Association-Midwest League championships and had a 42-8 league record in his last seven seasons at the helm, including six straight playoff appearances. In 2006 he was NAIA Region 2 Coach of the Year, with the team going a perfect 10-0 before a first-round, 38-31 double-overtime loss to Morningside in the NAIA Championship playoffs.

His accomplishments at St. Ambrose began in his first season as he guided his team to a 9-1 season with the only loss coming at the hands of eventual national champion Findlay. During his 12 seasons Sturdy coached 64 first-team all-conference players and 28 All-Americans. His players rewrote the offense school records in virtually every category.

Sturdy began his coaching career after his freshman year of college, taking over the Tipton High School sophomore baseball team in the summer of 1987. He continued to coach Tipton baseball for the next four seasons as the head sophomore coach and assistant varsity coach.

Sturdy began coaching football in 1990 as a graduate assistant for St. Ambrose University while student teaching at Assumption High School. In the spring of 1991 Sturdy was named the director of facilities at St.

Ambrose University. He then coached the secondary and special teams under Mike Woodley in 1992 and 1993 and was defensive coordinator in 1994.

In 1995, Sturdy was defensive coordinator at SAU under head coach Chuck Schrader. With seven games remaining in the season, Sturdy became interim head coach and was named the permanent head coach in December.

As a player, Sturdy was a quarterback for St. Ambrose University from 1987-90, while he earned a bachelor's degree in history education. In 1988 he was named the team's MVP and as team captain in 1989, he received the coach's appreciation award.

Sturdy attended Tipton High School, where he played four sports and accumulated 14 varsity letters. He was named all-state as a quarterback and started at quarterback for the South team in the 1986 Shrine Bowl.

Sturdy and his wife, Gina, are the parents of sons Keegan Joseph (9) and Carson (6).

Shawn Deeds

Coordinator of Football Operations

10th Season

Shawn Deeds is in his 10th season as Washington State's Coordinator of Football Operations. His responsibilities include future scheduling, team travel arrangements and the management of the football budget.

Deeds also coordinates preseason camp and serves as assistant director of Cougar Football Camp each summer, assists with all on-campus recruiting arrangements and serves as the staff liaison with WSU's Athletic Foundation, compliance, financial aid, academic services, business, marketing and ticket offices along with any outside agencies involved with the football program.

Deeds began his career as office assistant and assistant to then-head coach Mike Price in 1996, and was promoted to administrative assistant after one year.

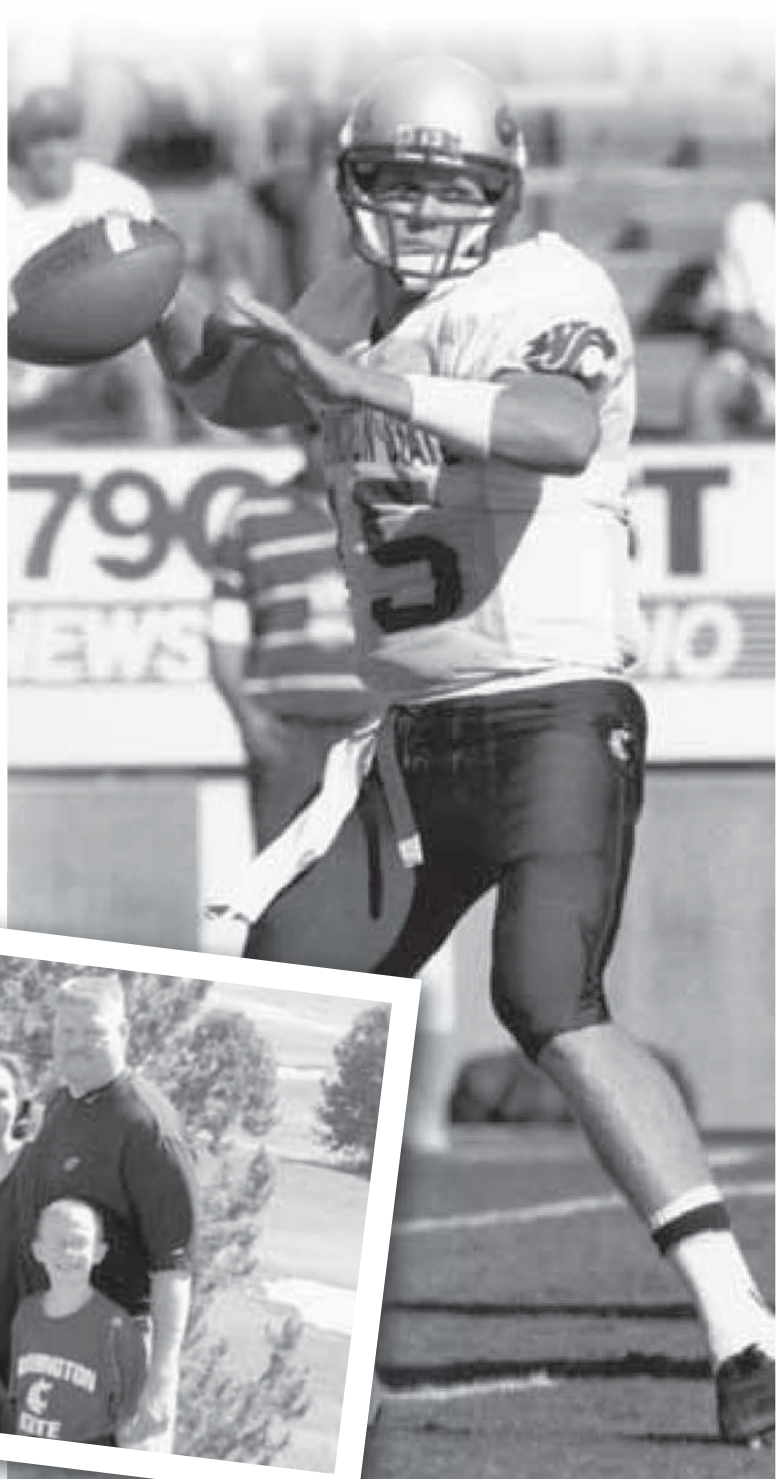

A former quarterback for the Cougar football team, Deeds earned two varsity letters playing for Price. After redshirting as a freshman and playing in one varsity game (Temple) the following year, he saw action in eight games as a redshirt sophomore, completing 41-of-100 passes for 599 yards and two touchdowns, and making one start against Arizona. Deeds led WSU to a 30-7 win over California after replacing injured starter Mike Pattinson.

During his senior season Deeds suffered a shoulder injury on the fourth play of the game against Stanford, ending his career. Deeds completed 42-of-102 passes for 619 yards and two touchdowns over the course of his Cougar career.

Deeds is a 1991 graduate of North Kitsap High School, where he earned 10 varsity letters including three in football for head coach Jerry Parrish. He also lettered four times as a forward in basketball and three times as a pitcher/first baseman in baseball.

As a senior at North Kitsap, Deeds completed 85-of-163 passes for a completion percentage of 52.1. He racked up 1,310 yards and 13 touchdowns, tossing only six interceptions. He was named a Seattle Times Red Chip prospect and garnered Northwest Nugget Second Team honors from the Tacoma News Tribune. He was also named All-Olympic League.

A native of Poulsbo, Wash., Deeds and his wife Amber have two sons, Ty and Trevor.

Nick Lucey

Graduate Assistant

Second Season

Nick Lucey, in his second season as offensive graduate assistant with Washington State, works primarily with wide receivers and quarterbacks. Lucey also served as a student assistant with the Cougars from 2006-07, working with the offensive line.

Lucey coaches WSU's offensive scout team, breaks down both WSU and opponent game film and charts opponent information on game days. Lucey has also coached at the high school level, working as an assistant coach at both Pullman High School (2003-05) and at Curtis High School (2002). He helped lead Pullman to the Washington State 2A Championship in 2005 and a runner-up finish in 2003.

A three-sport letterman and 1999 graduate of Curtis High School in University Place, Wash., Lucey went on to play college football for one season at Western State College of Colorado in Gunnison, Colo., before transferring to the University of Puget Sound. He played two seasons at UPS.

Lucey earned his bachelor's in health and fitness, and is currently pursuing a master's in higher education administration.

Ryan Smaha

Graduate Assistant

Second Season

Ryan Smaha, a graduate of Pullman High School, returned to the Palouse in 2007 and is in his second year as defensive graduate assistant with Washington State. He also served as a student assistant with the Cougars in 2007.

Smaha assists in the coaching of WSU's linebackers, and coaches the defensive and special teams scout teams. Smaha is also active in the Cougars' recruiting efforts, and breaks down both WSU and opponent game film, develops scout team depth charts and charts opponent information on game days.

Prior to his return to Pullman, Smaha served as tight ends coach and assistant recruiting coordinator at Idaho State University in Pocatello, Idaho, where he coached tight end Brandon Mennear to All-Big Sky honors in both 2005 and 2006.

He also worked as an assistant defensive coach at Eastern Oregon University in La Grande, Ore., working primarily with defensive backs and defensive and special teams scout.

Smaha, whose father Mark was a long-time athletic trainer at Washington State University, played defensive back for Eastern Oregon, where he earned his bachelor's in business marketing. He married the former Hanna Long July 26, 2008.

Kevin Night Pipe

Video Coordinator

Ninth Season

Kevin Night Pipe is in his ninth season as multimedia services coordinator for Washington State. Night Pipe coordinates videotaping of all WSU athletics, specializing mainly in football practices and game day. Night Pipe is also responsible for tape exchanges, weekly highlights for football and recruiting purposes and supervising six student assistants.

Prior to joining the WSU staff in July of 2001, Night Pipe worked at Northern Arizona as the Lumberjacks' video coordinator from 1999-2001. He was responsible for video production of men's and women's basketball, women's soccer, volleyball and track and field. He also worked with football coaches to produce breakdowns, editing, highlights and special videos.

Other responsibilities while at NAU included producing highlight and drill tapes used for recruiting, coordinating game tape exchanges with opponent video staffs in accordance with NCAA and Big Sky Conference rules and hiring and supervising all student staff.

From 1992-95 Night Pipe served as a student assistant video coordinator at the University of South Dakota. He was responsible for football breakdowns, editing, highlights and special needs, as well as game and practice video production, game tape coordination with opponents in the NCC and video equipment maintenance and care.

Night Pipe earned his bachelor's of science in political science and minored in mass communication at South Dakota. He worked on his master's in educational leadership at Northern Arizona from 1999-2001.

A 1987 graduate of Madison High School in Madison, S.D., Night Pipe was voted his team's defensive most valuable player in football in 1986. He and his wife, Jackie, were married in June, 2008, and they have a daughter, Krystal. Additionally they have two boxers, Brutis and Buster.

Darin Lovat

Football Head Strength Coach

Second Season

Darin Lovat, a native of Albuquerque, N.M., is in his second season as the Cougar Football Head Strength and Conditioning Coach, where he oversees all facets of physical development for the WSU football team.

Going on his 12th season as a strength and conditioning coach at the Division I level, Lovat is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (C.S.C.S.) and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (S.C.C.C.), and is a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Club Coach.

Prior to joining the Cougar family, Lovat spent the 2007-08 season with Boston College as the Eagles' Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. He was the top assistant for the Boston College football program, coordinated all injury rehabilitation programs and developed programs for all first-year student-athletes.

From 2002-07 Lovat served as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach for each of Eastern Washington University's 14 varsity sports. He assisted in the development of five Big Sky Conference Championship teams, an NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament appearance and back-to-back Football Championship Division playoff appearances with then-EWU football head coach Paul Wulff.

Lovat also spent time at UCLA from 1999-2002 as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach, serving as the top assistant for the football program. He oversaw all aspects of the training programs for 10 nationally-competitive Division I teams, two of which won NCAA titles.

Serving as a graduate assistant at Austin Peay State University from 1998-99, Lovat oversaw all aspects of the training programs for each of the school's 14 varsity sports. He also served as an intern with the Carolina Panthers and as a Student Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach at UNLV, assisting with a variety of sports under Mark Phillippi, the US Strongest Man winner in 1996.

Lovat earned his bachelor's degree in fitness management at UNLV, and his master's in exercise science from Austin Peay. He was a four-year letterwinner with the Rebels, playing in 47 consecutive games. He was a two-time member of the Big West Conference All-Academic Team, a two-time recipient of the Rebels' Special Teams Player of the Year award and was a member of the Las Vegas Bowl Championship team in 1994.

Lovat and his wife Ann, a native of Cheney, Wash., have been married for five years. His uncle Tom Lovat was a coach in the NFL for 25 years, and his cousin Mark Lovat is currently an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach with the Green Bay Packers.

Marco Candido

Strength Coach

Second Season

Marco Candido begins his second season as a member of the Washington State University Strength and Conditioning staff, though he is no stranger to the Cougar staff. Prior to spending 2006-08 as Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach at Drake University, Candido worked at WSU during the 2005-06 season as Intern/Interim Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach.

Many other strength and conditioning positions fill Candido's resume, including stints with the University of Alabama at Birmingham, Arizona State University, Birmingham Steeldogs (Arena Football 2), the University of La Verne and Occidental College.

In 2003 Candido earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Occidental College in Los Angeles, Calif., where he also played running back for the football team and led the Tigers to a conference championship. He earned his master's degree in exercise physiology in 2005 from the University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Candido is a member of and certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association - C.S.C.S., Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association - S.C.C.C., and U.S.A. Weightlifting - S.P.C.C.

Kenny Alfred holds the Apple Cup trophy following WSU's double-overtime victory in 2008.

WSU President Elson S. Floyd holds the Apple Cup trophy along with Washington Governor Christine Gregoire following the Cougars' victory over Washington at the 2008 Apple Cup.

Sponsored by Boeing, the Apple Cup trophy is presented annually by the governor of the state of Washington to the winner of the match-up between Washington State University and the University of Washington.

Though the 2009 meeting between the Cougars and Huskies will mark the 102nd game played between the two teams, the Apple Cup has only been a staple of the series for the past 40-plus years.

With the state of Washington being famously known for its apples, the Cougars and Huskies began playing for the Apple Cup trophy in 1962. Since the institution of the Apple Cup, WSU trails in the series 15-32, but has won four of the last five meetings, including a 16-13 double-overtime victory last season in Pullman, the 101st game played between the Cougars and Huskies. UW leads the all-time series 64-31-6.

From 1934-61 the winner of the cross-state rivalry was awarded the Governor's Trophy. WSU claimed the Governor's Trophy eight times during that span, with the Huskies winning 16 games and the schools ending in a tie on three occasions.

The first meeting between WSU and UW was played in 1900, with the schools playing to a 5-5 tie in Seattle. Since that time the Apple Cup has determined the Pacific-10 Conference Champion and a trip to the Rose Bowl on a number of occasions, making the rivalry game one of the fiercest in college football.

(Includes opponent-by-opponent results for all Pac-10 schools and this year's nonconference opponents)

OKLAHOMA STATE 39, WSU 13

Aug. 30, 2008, SEATTLE – Kendall Hunter ran for a career-best two touchdowns and Zac Robinson passed for or 182 yards and ran for another score in the Cowboys' 39-13 win over the Cougars.

The Cowboys, seventh last season nationally in total offense at 486 yards per game, gained just 367 yards. Twelve of their first 25 points came thanks to a 42-yard punt return by Dez Bryant, a safety and a 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Perrish Cox. Paul Wulff, the first graduate to lead the Cougars since Phil Sarboe left after the 1949 season, debuted his no-huddle, spread offense against the Cowboys. The Cougars trailed 18-0 before star receiver Brandon Gibson, who finished with six catches for 53 yards, made a twisting catch in the end zone off a 9-yard pass from Gary Rogers. The Cougars countered with a touchdown in the fourth when Gary Rogers rushed up the middle for 3 yard gain, putting the Cougars down by nine.

BAYLOR 45, WSU 17

Sept. 12, 2008, WACO, Texas – Robert Griffin ran for 217 yards and two touchdowns, and added one touchdown pass to lead Baylor to a 45-17 win over Washington State in a game moved up one day due the onset of Hurricane Ike. With the threat of Ike looming in the Gulf of Mexico, the Cougars traveled and played on the same day after the decision to move the game ahead was announced one day earlier. WSU took the opening kick and marched 37 yards for an opening-drive touchdown, capped by a one-yard run by Chantz Staden. Quarterback Kevin Lopina earned his first start as a Cougar and completed 17 of 26 passes for 174 yards, while adding a rushing touchdown. Brandon Gibson added eight catches for 128 yards. The Baylor offense rushed for 426 yards in the contest.

OREGON 63, WSU 14

Sept. 27, 2008, PULLMAN – LeGarrette Blount and Jeremiah Johnson each rushed for three touchdowns, part of seven scored on the ground for the Ducks, as Oregon defeated Washington State 63-14 on the Cougs' Homecoming Day. Oregon produced 346 yards on the ground and added 161 yards in the air, including two touchdown receptions by Jaison Williams, en route to the victory. WSU redshirt freshman Marshall Lobbestael completed 22 of 41 passes for 192 yards and two touchdowns in his debut as a starter. WSU's first score, a nine-yard Lobbestael pass to Jeshua Anderson, capped a 14-play, 82-yard drive that took 6:48, the longest Cougar scoring drive of the season. Senior Brandon Gibson caught a season-high 10 passes for 103 yards while safety Xavier Hicks collected a Cougar-season-high 14 tackles on the game.

UCLA 28, WSU 3

Oct. 4, 2008, PASADENA, Calif. – Kahlil Bell rushed for two touchdowns and Ryan Moya caught a pair of touchdown passes as UCLA defeated Washington State 28-3, to end a three-game Cougar winning streak in Pasadena dating back to the 1998 season. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Bruins took a 14-0 lead into halftime. The Cougars opened the second half by cutting into the lead after a season-best 47-yard field goal by Nico Grasu, but that was as close as WSU came. Moya's second touchdown of the game, a 12-yard pass from Kevin Craft and a one-yard Bell run early in the fourth quarter closed out the scoring. Brandon Gibson led the Cougars with six catches for 62 yards while Dwight Tardy had 50 yards rushing on 17 carries. Defensively, freshman Louis Bland registered eight tackles, including two tackles-for-loss, in just his second career start.

OREGON STATE 66, WSU 13

Oct. 11, 2008, CORVALLIS, Ore. – Jacquizz Rodgers rushed for a game-high 168 yards and one touchdown to lead the Oregon State Beavers to a 66-13 victory over the Washington State Cougars. WSU trailed 21-0 at the end of the first quarter before scoring 13 consecutive points thanks to a one-yard Chantz Staden touchdown run and a 16-yard Louis Bland interception return for a score. Bland's interception was one of four on the day by the Cougar defense, as Myron Beck added one and Xavier Hicks had two. Freshman quarterback Marshall Lobbetael became the third Cougar quarterback this season to leave the game due to injury.

USC 69, WSU 0

Oct. 18, 2008, PULLMAN, Wash. — Mark Sanchez threw for five touchdowns and C.J. Gable rushed for 109 yards and three scores as No. 6 USC defeated Washington State 69-0. The contest marked the first time in 280 consecutive games the Cougars failed to score, ending the second-longest active scoring streak, and fourth-longest all-time, in Division I. The last time the Cougars were held scoreless prior to USC was a 44-0 loss at Ohio State, Sept. 15, 1984. Ronald Johnson and Patrick Turner each caught two touchdown passes from Sanchez while Stafon Johnson and Broderick also ran for over 100 yards each.

STANFORD 58, WSU 0

Nov. 1, 2008, STANFORD — Toby Gerhart rushed for a game-high 132 yards and four touchdowns as Stanford snapped a two-game skid to Washington State with a 58-0 victory over the Cougars. The loss marked the second straight game the Cougars failed to score after registering points in their previous 280 games, which marked the fourth-longest streak in NCAA Division I history. Freshman quarterback J.T. Levenseller saw the first action of his career, completing two of four passes for 20 yards. His first completion went to Tony Thompson, son of legendary Cougar Jack Thompson. The elder Thompson completed 97 passes to J.T.'s dad, Cougar assistant coach Mike Levenseller, when the two were teammates in the 1970s.

ARIZONA STATE 31, WSU 0

Nov. 15, 2008, TEMPE – Rudy Carpenter threw three touchdown passes and the Sun Devil defense held the Cougars to 130 yards of total offense as Arizona State defeated Washington State 31-0. The game marked the third time during the 2008 season the Cougars were held scoreless. It was a scoreless game through the first quarter before Thomas Weber kicked a 21-yard field goal early in the second quarter to open the scoring. Taking a 10-0 lead into the third quarter, Carpenter hooked up with Kyle Williams on a pair of touchdown passes to put the game away. WSU senior receiver Brandon Gibson's three first-half receptions moved him into a tie for second place on the career receptions list while his 41 receiving yards pushed him past Jason Hill and into first place on WSU's all-time receiving yards list.

WSU 16, WASHINGTON 13 2OT

Nov. 22, 2008, PULLMAN – Sophomore kicker Nico Grasu kicked three field goals, one to end regulation and two in overtime, to lift Washington State to a 16-13, come-from-behind victory over rival Washington in the Apple Cup. Trialing by three with 56 seconds remaining in regulation, the Cougars drove 69 yards, including a 48-yard Kevin Lopina-to-Jared Karstetter pass to the Washington 18 and was capped by Grasu's 28-yard field goal with no time remaining to send the game to overtime. After the teams exchanged field goals, the Cougar defense held Washington to a missed field goal in the second overtime, setting the stage for Grasu's 37-yard game-winner. After going scoreless in the first half, Logwone Mitz put WSU on the board with a 57-yard, third-quarter touchdown run. The Huskies scored 10 points in the second quarter and took that margin into halftime. Greg Trent led the WSU defense with a game-high 12 tackles as WSU won the Apple Cup for the second-straight year and fourth time in the last five seasons.

HAWAII 24, WSU 10

Nov. 29, 2008, Honolulu, Hawaii. – Greg Alexander threw for 315 yards and two touchdowns to lead Hawaii to a 24-10 victory over Washington State in the Cougars' 2008 season finale. After spotting Hawaii to a 14-0 lead, the Cougars found the scoreboard on Nico Grasu's 26-yard field goal in the second quarter. In the third Dwight Tardy's one-yard touchdown run cut the lead to 17-10, but WSU drew no closer. Freshman quarterback JT Levenseller came in late in the second quarter to replace injured Kevin Lopina and completed 6-of-11 passes for 53 yards. Senior receiver Brandon Gibson had one reception for 18 yards to finish his Cougar career as the school's career leader in receiving yards (2,756) and second all-time in receptions with 182. Senior linebacker Greg Trent, a four-year starter, recorded one tackle to finish his career with 323 tackles, seventh all-time at WSU.

ALEX BRINK ARA SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

Former Washington State quarterback Alex Brink was the 2007 recipient of the ARA Sportsmanship Award, presented annually by the Awards and Recognition Association. The national award is presented each year to the NCAA Division I college football player who most exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the field.

Brink was selected from 10 finalists representing schools across the country. Previous winners of the award include Carolina Panthers running back DeAngelo Williams (Memphis) and St. Louis Rams running back Brian Leonard (Rutgers).

Brink, who ended his career as WSU's career record-holder in passing yards, touchdowns, completions, attempts and total offense, was also one of 15 recipients of the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award and a finalist for the Draddy Award, entitling him to an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship. The Draddy Award annually recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership.

Brink was a two-time finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy, which honors the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with outstanding academic and athletic achievement.

WSU 14, BROWN 0

A crowd of 10,000 was on hand at the Pasadena Rose Bowl January 1 to watch as undefeated Washington State took on eastern power Brown University in the first of the continuous Rose Bowls. WSU used third and fourth quarter touchdown runs by Ralph Boone and Carl Dietz to shutout the Bruins 14-0. Brown entered the game a two-to-one favorite, despite a modest 5-3-1 record. The Bruins' 3-0 win over Yale was the key accomplishment that earned the Rhode Island team an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl. A cold spell, followed by a heavy rain and some snow for three days prior to the game, turned the playing field into a sea of mud that slowed both teams. Brown came close to scoring twice in the first half, but each time Washington State's defense, which had allowed just one field goal and one touchdown all season, rose to the task and halted the Bruins short of the goal line, once at the four yard line. Bruin star Fritz Pollard gained just 47 yards in 13 carries. Pollard later became the first black named to a Walter Camp All-America team and was the first black head coach in the National Football League. In the second half WSU's size advantage began to pay off as the Cougars took command, scoring once in each quarter. WSU's preparation for the game had been, to say the least, odd. Coach William "Lone Star" Dietz, out of the Carlisle Indian School, and his Cougar squad served as extras in the football film "Tom Brown of Harvard" each morning, then practiced for the bowl game during the afternoon. Each WSU player earned $100 for the 14 mornings of movie work. During practice sessions, Dietz appeared in his "classic" coaching attire: a silk hat, Prince Albert cutaway coat, striped pants, yellow gloves, and a walking stick. Originally known as the Pasadena Tournament of Roses East-West game (it was 1923 when the real Rose Bowl facility was completed that the name changed), the WSU-Brown game was played at Tournament Park.

Washington State University's undefeated 1915 team met eastern power Brown University in the 1916 Rose Bowl and won 14-0, completing an undefeated season. The 1916 game was the first of the continuous Rose Bowl contests.

ALABAMA 24, WSU 0

The Alabama Crimson Tide used a second-quarter blitz, including touchdown runs of one and 43 yards by quarterback Monk Campbell, to post a 24-0 win over previously undefeated Washington State in the 17th Rose Bowl game, viewed by 65,000 fans. Alabama's coach was Wallace Wade, who had been a member of the Brown University team that lost to WSU in the 1916 Rose Bowl. Wade, during his career, coached in five Rose Bowls.

"Babe" Hollingbery's fifth Cougar team went a perfect 9-0-0 to earn a Rose Bowl berth in 1930, including a 6-0 mark during the Pacific Coast Conference schedule. Included in the list of Cougar victims were California 16-0, USC 7-6, Washington 3-0 and Villanova 13-0. Two members of the WSU team later earned recognition in the College Football Hall of Fame, Mel Hein and Glen "Turk" Edwards.

#14 BYU 38, #20 WSU 36

Three games in one was more than the 52,000-plus fans at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium paid for, but three games is what they saw as the Brigham Young Cougars held on to defeat the Washington State Cougars 38-36. The BYU squad won the first game, a 31-minute affair that generated a 31-7 lead for the team from Provo. The next 25 minutes just as convincingly belonged to WSU 29-7. In the end, however, the game belonged to BYU as much for defense as anything. They stopped the Pullman team with just over three minutes to play by forcing a punt, then ran out the clock to preserve the win. Jim McMahon, in his last collegiate game, completed 27 of 43 passes for 342 yards and three touchdowns. More importantly, he did not throw an interception. The WSU Cougars used the running of Don LaBomme and quarterback Ricky Turner to baffle the BYU team, especially in the second half. Turner gained 92 yards in 12 carries and scored twice, while LaBomme added 79 yards in 14 carries and scored once. Robert Williams and Mike Martin also scored for the Cougars. WSU's failure on a two-point conversion late in the third quarter, an interception BYU's Ron Holmoe returned 35 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the third quarter, and a key sack of Casper on WSU's last possession loomed big in a game that had numerous turning points.

#18 WSU 24, #14 HOUSTON 22

Washington State scored 24 second-quarter points and forced a last-second Houston turnover in notching a 24-22 win over the Texan Cougars Christmas Day. The bowl appearance was WSU's second of the 1980s and evened the Cougars bowl record to 2-2. In a close game there are many heroes, but for WSU, none stood out more than senior Victor Wood. He picked up a fumble early in the second quarter and zipped five yards for a touchdown that put his Cougars ahead 7-3. On WSU's next possession, Wood caught a 15-yard scoring pass from Timm Rosenbach to put WSU up 14-3 and well on its way to a bowl victory viewed by a national ABC-TV audience. Wood's heroics were catching as WSU added a Jason Hanson 33-yard field goal and another touchdown, this one by Rosenbach, before halftime to put Washington State in command 24-9. WSU limited the Texas visitors to just five first half firstdowns, 46 yards rushing, and 77 yards passing before intermission. The Cougars picked off two Houston passes, one each by Shawn Landrum and Vernon Todd. In the end, however, it was Tuineau Alipate's hard hit that forced a Houston fumble recovered by Artie Holmes at the WSU five yard line. James Dixon was the recipient of Alipate's jarring tackle after catching a David Dacus pass over the middle that appeared for a moment to set up a potential game-winning score by Houston. The Cougars then controlled the ball for the final 2:44, with a key six-yard Rosenbach to Tim Stallworth pass giving WSU the much-needed first down just before the game ended.

#18 WSU 31, UTAH 28

Perhaps no college bowl game following the 1992 gridiron season was more offensive minded than the Copper Bowl matchup between WSU and Utah, but after all the running and passing that accounted for more than 1,100 yards, the deciding play was a 22-yard field goal by WSU's Aaron Price. The Cougars scored 21 unanswered points in the first quarter and one additional score just before halftime for a 28-14 lead. WSU then held on until Price gave them their final lead with 5:08 to play. Even then, they had to watch anxiously as Chris Yergensen's 20-yard chip shot sailed wildly to the left with 3:18 remaining. Though the 40,000-plus fans left the stadium talking about the offensive plays that stood out, it was WSU's defense in the fourth quarter that made this win possible. The Utes scored twice in the second quarter and added two more scores to pull even with a quarter to play. Both teams then turned to their defenses. The key play came with 6:29 to play when Utah's Frank Dolce avoided a strong WSU rush and hooked up with Henry Lusk on a short sideline pass. John Rushing then stripped Lusk of the ball and Singor Mobley scooped it up at the Utah 36 yard line. Fifteen yards later, at the Utah 21, Mobley was dragged down, setting up the Cougars with great field position. Drew Bledsoe immediately drove the Cougars to the Utah five yard line before turning the scoring chores over to Price. Like he did the closing seconds of WSU's 23-20 win over Arizona in the same stadium early in the season, Price came through with the kick. Bledsoe completed 30 of 46 passes for a school record 476 yards. Phillip Bobo caught TD passes of 87 (equalling a school record) and 48 yards, and Shaumbe Wright-Fair picked up 123 yards rushing and scored on a pair of three-yard line smashes.

#24 WSU 10, BAYLOR 3

The Washington State offense scored on the opening drive of the game and on the last play of the second quarter to provide all the points the Cougar defense needed as WSU held off Baylor's late challenge in a 10-3 win at the second annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl before a crowd of 44,106. Despite some anxious moments in the closing seconds of the game, the Cougar defense made those 10 points stand up by limiting the record-setting Bear offense to eight first downs, 151 yards in total offense and just one field goal. The Cougars did something against Baylor they had not done all season, take the opening kickoff and drive the length of the field for a touchdown. The drive totaled 91 yards, equalling the longest scoring drive of the season, and ended when Kevin Hicks busted through the left side of the line from one yard out to put WSU on top 7-0. The score came six minutes, 32 seconds after the kickoff. WSU's offense provided three more points just before halftime to give the Cougs a 10-0 lead at intermission. Taking the ball after Baylor's Jarvis VanDyke missed his second field goal attempt of the first half, WSU drove from its own 30 yard line to the Baylor 20 yard line, where Tony Truant banged home a 37-yard field goal with two seconds left in the first half. A sideline pass to Jay Dumas for a key first down, then another similar pass to Albert Kennedy put the ball in perfect position for Truant. Davis, named the game's most valuable offensive player, hit six of eight passes on the drive. Davis, who completed 27 of 35 passes for 286 yards, gave Cougar fans a few anxious minutes in the third quarter when he took a hard blow to the back while scrambling out of the pocket. He was able to return one play later and finished the game. Defensively WSU was especially tough in the first half. Baylor came into the game averaging nearly 33 points per game and 382.4 yards per contest. In the first half WSU's defense, led by the game's most valuable defensive player, Ron Childs, limited the Bears to just 41 net yards, 24 rushing and 17 passing. Childs had 10 tackles in the game, including eight solo, of which two were for negative yardage. Only on its last possession did Baylor come close to the WSU endzone, where Todd Jensen, a senior who backed up John Rushing all year, picked off a Jeff Watson pass to halt any Baylor hope of scoring. The bowl victory was WSU's second in the last three years and third in seven years. Joining Childs defensively were Chris Hayes with seven tackles, Mark Fields with six and Chad Eaton with five. Fields and Eaton combined for WSU's only sack, while Torey Hunter also had an interception.

#1 MICHIGAN 21, #8 WSU 16

(January 1, 1998, Pasadena, Calif.): The Washington State Cougars, making their first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years, pushed national champion and number one ranked Michigan to the last play of the game before falling to the Wolverines 21-16 before 101,219 fans and a world-wide television audience. The victory left Michigan a perfect 13-0 for the season, bumping the Cougars to a 10-2 record. After Michigan thwarted two WSU drives to start the game, the Cougar defense forced a Wolverine punt that would set up WSU's first scoring drive. The Cougs took over on the Michigan 47-yard-line with 6:26 to play in the first quarter. Ryan Leaf completed two passes during the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown toss to Kevin McKenzie with 3:17 left in the first quarter. Rian Lindell's point-after gave WSU the early 7-0 advantage. WSU came close to taking a 14-point lead, but Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson halted a WSU drive in the Michigan endzone when he intercepted a Leaf pass from the 12 yard line. The Wolverine's answering scoring drive began from their own 34-yard-line at the 8:04 mark in the second quarter and ended with a 58-yard pass from Bob Griese to Tai Streets that completed the first half scoring. Early in the second half, WSU took over 99 yards from the endzone after Michigan's Jason Vinson dropped a perfect punt just outside the endzone. Shawn Tims put the finishing touches on WSU's 99 yard drive in nine plays, taking a reverse handoff the final 14 yards. Leaf hit four of five passes in the drive that amassed 73 yards. Lindell's PAT attempt was blocked by Michigan's James Hall, leaving the WSU advantage at 13-7. The Wolverines responded immediately, moving the ball on their next possession to their 39 yard-line to set up another Griese-to-Streets touchdown combination, this time 58 yards. Baker's point-after gave Michigan their first lead, 14-13 with 6:07 left in the third quarter. Michigan then padded their lead with a 14-play, 77-yard drive that ended in Griese's third touchdown pass of the game, a 23-yarder to Jerame Tuman. Baker's extra-point kick increased the Michigan advantage to 21-13 with 11:21 to play. Washington State responded immediately with an eight-play, 49-yard drive that set up a 48-yard field goal by Lindell, cutting Michigan's lead to five points, 21-16 with 7:25 remaining. The Wolverines then put together a 51-yard drive that consumed almost seven minutes off the game clock. When Jay Feely's pooch punt rolled dead at the WSU seven-yard-line, the Cougars' victory hopes were 93 yards and 29 seconds away. After two incomplete passes, the Cougars faced third-and-10 with only 16 seconds left. Leaf then found Nian Taylor along the sideline for a gain of 46, to the Michigan 47-yard-line. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf hit Love Jefferson at the Michigan 25 and the Cougar tight end lateraled to a streaking Jason Clayton, who managed nine more yards before being brought down in bounds at Michigan's 16 yard line with 0:02 on the game clock. Out of timeouts, WSU was forced to try and spike the ball on first-down, but officials ruled that the final two seconds slipped away before the ball was effectively downed, thus preventing WSU's one final shot at a major upset.

#8 OKLAHOMA 34, #7 WSU 14

January 1, 2003, Pasadena, Calif. – Oklahoma's vaunted defense stifled Washington State's high-flying passing attack and captured the 89th Rose Bowl Game 34-14 in front of 86,848 fans New Year's Day. The Sooners broke the game open with a pair of touchdowns inside the two-minute mark of the first half. The first came on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Nate Hybl, the game's most valuable player. Antonio Perkins extended OU's lead to 17-0 with a 51-yard punt return just :42 seconds later. Hybl connected on 19 of 29 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. Sooner running back Quentin Griffin carried the ball 30 times for 144 yards. WSU quarterback Jason Gesser finished his career by completing 17 of 34 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown. Sammy Moore provided the game's final highlight, returning an OU kick 89 yards for a score with just 1:15 remaining. Linebacker Teddy Lehman led the Big XII Champions with six tackles, including two sacks, while free safety Erik Coleman recorded 10 tackles and recovered a fumble for the Cougars.

#15 WSU 28, #5 TEXAS 20

December 30, 2003, San Diego, Calif. – Washington State reached the 10-win plateau for the third time in as many seasons with a 28-20 comeback victory over Texas in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Facing a 10-7 halftime deficit, the Cougars rallied to score three touchdowns in the third quarter and take a 26-10 lead into the final stanza. The second half fireworks began with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Matt Kegel to Sammy Moore with just over nine minutes left in the third. WSU used a trick play to get in the end zone once again four minutes later. Kegel lined up under center, but instead of taking the snap, ran in motion to the right sideline, leaving running back Jonathan Smith alone in the backfield. Smith fumbled the snap, but recovered and ran 12 yards for a touchdown. Two Texas possessions later, the WSU defense continued the onslaught when Jason David recovered a fumble and took it 18 yards for the Cougs' final touchdown of the game. Washington State's defense forced a fourth quarter safety to push its total to 28. Moore earned most valuable offensive player honors after converting both of his catches for touchdowns and setting up another with a 51-yard punt return. Sophomore Kyle Basler was named the game's most valuable defensive player after pinning the Longhorns inside their own five on four occasions.

Jason Hanson, now a 17-year veteran of the National Football League's Detroit Lions, starred at Washington State as both a kicker and punter from 1988-91, garnering first-team All-America honors three times and first-team academic All-America honors three times.

Over the course of his career, Hanson booted 39 field goals of 40-plus yards, and 20 field goals of 50-plus yards, both of which are NCAA records. In 1991 Hanson's average of field goals made was 50.9 yards, an NCAA single-season record.

In 1991 Hanson nailed a 62-yard field goal at UNLV, which at the time was the longest in NCAA history without the use of a kicking tee. The mark still stands as the longest field goal in WSU history.

DREW BLEDSOE : Prior to becoming the first overall selection of the 1993 NFL Draft, the highest draft position in school history, Drew Bledsoe was an All-American, record-setting WSU quarterback. He finished his three-year career with 7,373 yards passing, 532 completions, 979 attempts and 46 TD passes, marks that each ranked second on WSU's all-time list when he left. He was the Pac-10's Most Valuable Player following his junior season, and finished eighth in the Heisman voting. Playing in the NFL Bledsoe earned four Pro Bowl appearances, was twice named NFL All-Pro and led the New England Patriots to Super Bowl XXXI and Super Bowl XXXVI. In his second pro season Bledsoe set NFL records for pass attempts, became the second quarterback in NFL history to complete 400-or-more passes in a season and led the NFL in passing yards.

ASA V. "ACE" CLARK: The captain of the 1915 Washington State University team that played in the first Rose Bowl and defeated Brown University (14-0) on New Year's Day in 1916, Ace Clark played tackle, center and fullback during his Cougar career. Clark was named one of the tackles on the All-Time Pacific Coast Team for the first 50 years of collegiate football (1869-1919), and went on to serve in the State House of Representatives (1941-49) and was a State Senator from Whitman County from 1949-56.

ALEX BRINK: The latest in an impressive lineage of WSU quarterbacks, Alex Brink broke nearly every career passing record before being drafted by the Houston Texans in 2008. His 1,441 attempts, 848 completions, 10,913 passing yards and 76 touchdowns are all WSU records, and his career completion percentage of .584 ranks second on WSU's all-time list. The four-year starter is the only quarterback in school history with more than 10,000 career passing yards. He completed his career ranked third in Pac-10 history in the statistical category and his career touchdown passes ranked fifth on the conference all-time list. Following his senior season when he led the Pac-10 in passing yardage Brink was drafted in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

CHAD EATON: One of the most dominant interior linemen in school history, Chad Eaton became the third Cougar defensive player to be honored with the Pac-10's Morris Trophy following his senior season, an award given to the league's top defensive lineman. He garnered first-team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior, as well as All-America accolades from both UPI and the AP after recording 69 tackles including 14.5 for-loss and 4.5 sacks. He played in WSU's Copper Bowl victory as a sophomore and the team's Alamo Bowl victory as a senior, and received all-conference honors as a junior. He completed his WSU career with 30.5 TFLs, ranking tied for third in school history, and 10.5 sacks. Following his collegiate playing days, Eaton went on to play 103 games in the NFL including Super Bowl XXXI with the New England Patriots.

STEVE BROUSSARD: The most versatile back in WSU history, Steve Broussard set nine rushing records while at WSU, and his 4,635 all-purpose yards ranked seventh all-time in Pac-10 history. He left the Cougars ranked second in career rushing with 3,054 yards and first in career rushing touchdowns with 33, and his 120 career receptions ranked fifth. His single-season rushing yards as a junior (1,280) and as a senior (1,237) ranked second and third on WSU's all-time list, respectively. Broussard was named Pac-10 Offensive Most Valuable Player following his senior season, and he was selected with the No. 20 pick in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. After playing in the NFL for nine seasons, Broussard went into coaching and he is currently the running backs and special teams coach at WSU.

GLEN "TURK" EDWARDS: One of the greatest collegiate and professional linemen in the history of football, Turk Edwards was an All-American offensive tackle with the Cougars and went on to the NFL where he earned All-Pro honors as a rookie with the Redskins. In college Edwards helped lead the Cougars to the 1931 Rose Bowl against Alabama. Playing professionally from 1932-41, Edwards earned All-Pro status five times and won five league championships. He went on to coach the Redskins for three seasons and eventually became the team's vice president. He is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

HUGH CAMPBELL: The "Phantom of the Palouse", All-American Hugh Campbell is arguably the greatest Cougar receiver in school history, twice leading the NCAA in receiving and racking up 177 catches for 2,459 yards and 22 touchdowns during his Cougar playing days. All three career receiving marks set school records and stood for more than four decades. Campbell went on to play professionally in the Canadian Football League, where he was the receptions leader from 1964-67. He was voted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame after leading the Edmonton Eskimos to nine Grey Cup Championships between his years as a coach and in the front office. He also served as head coach of the Houston Oilers.

MARK FIELDS: Playing only two seasons with the Cougars, Mark Fields cemented his status as one of the most feared linebackers in school history. Fields first played for WSU in 1992 and then sat out the 1993 season. He returned to the squad in 1994 and was the most dominant defensive player in the Pac-10, garnering the conference's Defensive Most Valuable Player award and All-America honors from both UPI and the AP. He was selected with the No. 13 pick in the first round of the NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints, the highest selection for a Cougar linebacker, and went on to play for 10 professional seasons. He racked up 769 career tackles, appeared in two Pro Bowls and played in Super Bowls with both the St. Louis Rams (XXXVI) and the Carolina Panthers (XXXVIII).

JASON GESSER: Cougar career records that had stood for nearly a quarter of a century were no match for Jason Gesser. When he left WSU, Gesser owned WSU career marks with 1,118 attempts, 611 completions, 8,830 passing yards and 70 touchdowns. The All-American and three-time All-Pac-10 honoree finished seventh in Heisman voting and was named co-Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year after his senior season. Gesser's 24 wins as a starting quarterback are more than any other signal-caller in school history and he set a school record by throwing touchdown passes in 25 consecutive games. Following his stellar collegiate career, he went on to play in both the NFL and the Arena League, and is now working as a high school football coach.

ED GODDARD: The first great quarterback in WSU history, Ed Goddard was an All-American in each of his three varsity seasons playing with the Cougars. The "Escondido Express" was a triple-threat back, and received the largest percentage of All-America votes of any athlete as voted by fellow players. Goddard became WSU's first first-round draft pick and played professional football for the Cleveland Rams after being selected with the No. 2 pick, and also played professional baseball for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

JASON HANSON: One of the most honored Cougar athletes of all-time, Jason Hanson earned All-America status as both a kicker and punter during his four-year, record-setting career. He was a freshman All-American in his debut season, and went on to become WSU's first unanimous All-American as a sophomore. He was again named an All-American as a junior and senior, earning first-team honors as both a kicker and punter from The Sporting News in his final campaign. After booting 39 field goals of 40-plus yards, 20 field goals of 50-plus yards and a 62-yard field goal against UNLV – all of which set NCAA records – Hanson went on to become a second round draft choice by the Detroit Lions. During his All-Pro professional career Hanson has set numerous NFL records, earned two selections to the Pro Bowl and became the Lions' all-time leading scorer and is one of the top 10 leading scorers in NFL history.

JEROME HARRISON: Jerome Harrison put together quite arguably the greatest season by a WSU running back in school history as a senior. He led the nation in rushing with a school-record 1,900 yards en route to consensus All-America honors. Harrison put together a string of 16 consecutive 100-yard rushing games, breaking the Pac-10 record. His 16 touchdowns that season broke the WSU single-season record that had stood for nearly 20 years. Harrison owns three of the top five single-game rushing performances, and put together five games of 200-plus rushing yards, more than any other Cougar running back in school history. Following his collegiate career Harrison was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns, making a start in his rookie season.

MEL HEIN: Not just the greatest player in WSU history, Mel Hein is one of the greatest football players in the history of the game, earning mention on The Sporting News' 100 greatest players of all-time in 1999 despite more than 50 years passing since he played his last game. Hein was a charter member of both the NFL Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame, having his jersey retired by both WSU and the New York Giants. While playing with the Cougars Hein earned All-America recognition and led the team to the 1931 Rose Bowl. While playing professionally, Hein became the only offensive lineman to win the NFL's Most Valuable Player award. He was named to the NFL All-Time Team and was one of three centers named to the All-Century Team by TSN. An eight-time All-Pro, Hein won two NFL Championships with the Giants.

JASON HILL: The greatest scoring threat in WSU receiving history, Jason Hill amassed a Cougar-record 32 touchdown catches, the second-most all-time in Pac-10 history and breaking a 44-year-old school record. His 13 touchdowns in 2005 and 12 touchdowns in 2004 rank first and second on WSU's all-time single-season lists, respectively. Hill became the first receiver in school history to post two 1,000-yard seasons en route to 2,704 career yards, a mark that also broke a school record that had stood for 44 years. His 148 receptions were tied for second-most in WSU history. Following an All-American career, Hill was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers in the third round and became a starter in his second season with the team.

ORIN E. "BABE" HOLLINGBERY: Babe Hollingbery served as Washington State's head coach for 17 seasons (1926-42), compiling a win-loss record of 93-53-14 (.625), more victories than any coach in school history. Hollingbery developed many of the finest players in school history and led the Cougars to the Rose Bowl during the 1930 season. An outstanding athlete and coach in the San Francisco area for many years, Hollingbery is the father of the East-West Shrine Game. He served as the coach of the West Team for 19 years, compiling an 11-4-4 record. He served the classic for 45 years as coach and director of coach and player selection. Hollingbery was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1979.

RYAN LEAF: Not just one of the greatest quarterbacks in school history, Ryan Leaf is one of the greatest signal-callers in NCAA history. Following his junior season, Leaf finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting, was named to multiple All-America lists, received the Sammy Baugh Passer of the Year Award and was named Pac-10 Offensive Most Valuable Player. After ending WSU's 67-year Rose Bowl drought and setting Pac-10 records with 3,968 passing yards and 33 touchdown passes in 1997, he was taken with the second overall pick by the San Diego Chargers in the 1998 NFL Draft. During his time in Pullman, Leaf broke the WSU career passing touchdowns record that had stood for nearly 20 years, and completed his career ranked amongst the top four in virtually every major passing category.

KEITH LINCOLN: Keith Lincoln, the “Moose of the Palouse,” may be remembered as the Golden Boy of the San Diego Chargers in the 1960s, but before his professional career he was a triple-threat back that ran, passed and kicked for the Cougars. He set WSU’s career rushing and career punting records, racking up 1,501 yards on the ground and averaging 40.3 yards per punt, and was an All-West Coast selection at halfback in 1959. Lincoln then went on to play professionally, where he was the Most Valuable Athlete of the American Football League Championship game in 1963 and the Most Valuable Player of the AFL All-Star game following the 1963 season. He returned to Pullman following his playing days and served as director of WSU’s Alumni Association for many years.

KEITH MILLARD: To put it simply, Keith Millard is the most dominant defensive player in school history. An All-American, he set all 12 Cougar records for tackles-for-loss and sacks and became WSU’s first Morris Trophy honoree, given annually to the Pac-10’s top defensive linemen as voted on by fellow conference players. Prior to leaving WSU, Millard racked up 180 tackles including 39.5 TFLs and 21.5 sacks, setting single-game, single-season and career records in both statistical categories. He went on to the NFL after being selected with the No. 13 pick in the first round by the Minnesota Vikings and played for nine seasons. He was named NFL Defensive MVP in 1989 after recording a league-high 18 sacks, earned All-Pro status four times and played in two Pro Bowls. He is currently a member of the Oakland Raiders coaching staff.

RIEN LONG: Rien Long is one of the most dominant defensive tackle in Cougar history, winning the Outland Trophy following his junior season. The honor is given annually to the nation’s best interior lineman, and Long is the only WSU player in school history to win the award. His junior season he racked up 21.5 tackles-for-loss, second-most all-time in a single season in WSU history, and 13 sacks, fourth-most all-time in a WSU single season. Despite leaving school after his junior campaign, he still ranked in the career top 10 in both sacks (17) and TFLs (35.5). Following his All-American year, Long was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans and became a starter for the team.

DeWAYNE PATTERSON: DeWayne Patterson spent his entire Cougar career in the opponent’s backfield, racking up 52.5 tackles-for-loss, 342.5 TFL yards, 37.5 sacks and 244 sack yards – all of which are schools records. He garnered All-America status as a senior and was named first-team All-Pac-10 following both his junior and senior seasons. His 22 TFLs and 17 sacks in 1993 each set Cougar single-season records, and his five TFLs against Pacific in 1993 and four sacks against both Oregon in 1993 and UCLA in 1994 were all tied for WSU’s single-game records. After helping to lead WSU to a defensive 10-3 victory in the Alamo Bowl, Patterson signed with the Seattle Seahawks and went on to play three seasons with Calgary in the Canadian Football League.

DAN LYNCH: A four-year letterwinner at Washington State, Dan Lynch anchored WSU’s offensive line in the early 1980s and was one of the greatest offensive linemen in the Pac-10 during his era. Lynch earned unanimous first-team All-Pac-10 selections as both a junior and senior, and was one of only three Cougar offensive linemen to garner Associated Press All-America First Team honors. Following his senior campaign he was also a unanimous recipient of the Morris Trophy, given to the league’s top offensive lineman, and is the only Cougar to win the award on offense.

GEORGE REED: An outstanding fullback on WSU’s 1959, 1961 and 1962 teams, George Reed went on to play 13 seasons in the Canadian Football League after a serious leg injury nearly derailed his playing career. While with the Saskatchewan Roughriders he racked up 16,166 rushing yards and 134 rushing touchdowns, which was at the time more yards and touchdowns than any professional football player in any professional league’s history. He won the 1966 Grey Cup Championship with the Roughriders, was named a CFL All-Star nine times and earned CFL Most Outstanding Player honors in 1965. Often mentioned as one of the greatest running backs in CFL history, Reed’s jersey was retired by the Roughriders and he was inducted into the CFL Hall of Fame in 1979.

RUEBEN MAYES: By the end of his distinguished four-year Cougar career Rueben Mayes held a number of WSU, Pac-10 and NCAA rushing records, including a single-game total of 357 yards against Oregon. Twice he was honored as the Pac-10’s outstanding offensive athlete, and he finished in the Heisman Trophy top 10 as a junior in 1984. His career totals of 3,519 rushing yards, 23 rushing touchdowns, 24 total touchdowns, 13 100-yard rushing games and 4,418 all-purpose yards all set WSU records, and in 2008 his All-American career culminating in his being voted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Following his collegiate career, Mayes went on to star in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints, who drafted him in the third round. He won Rookie of the Year honors in his debut season and also made two Pro Bowls.

TIMM ROSENBACH: Of all the great Cougar quarterbacks to come through Pullman over the years, none was more accurate than All-American Timm Rosenbach, whose .601 career completion percentage is still the WSU standard. Rosenbach ranked second in every other major career passing category before leaving school for the NFL, including 789 attempts, 474 completions, 5,995 yards and 39 touchdowns. After leading the nation in pass efficiency his junior year, Rosenbach finished seventh in Heisman Trophy voting and was the first overall pick in the NFL’s 1989 Supplemental Draft. In 1990 he played every offensive snap for the Phoenix Cardinals.

MARK RYPIEN: The nation's top prep quarterback prospect didn't disappoint at WSU. Mark Rypien was a record-setting, two-time All-American quarterback for the Cougars before moving on to the NFL. By the end of his WSU career Rypien ranked amongst the top three in every major career passing category with 613 attempts, 326 completions, 4,573 passing yards, a completion percentage of .532 and 28 touchdowns. After being drafted in the sixth round by the Washington Redskins in 1986, he became a fixture at quarterback, leading the team to Super Bowl XXVI and earning Most Valuable Player honors in the championship game. Rypien also earned to invitations to the Pro Bowl during his NFL career.

MARCUS TRUFANT: Quite possibly the greatest cornerback in school history, Marcus Trufant was a four-year starter for the Cougars and did not allow a touchdown pass in his final two seasons. An All-America selection following his senior campaign, Trufant left WSU ranking sixth on the all-time interceptions list. After helping to lead the Cougars to the 2003 Rose Bowl, Trufant was selected with the No. 11 pick in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks and was named to the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie Team in his debut season. In his years of professional football, Trufant has already played in a Super Bowl (XL) and was elected to the Pro Bowl following the 2007 season.

JACK THOMPSON: The "Throwin' Samoan" is one of only two football players in school history to have his jersey retired. Arguably the greatest quarterback in a long line of Cougar standouts, Jack Thompson completed his WSU career as the most prolific passer in NCAA history. After becoming the first junior in NCAA history to surpass 5,000 career passing yards, he set the national record with 7,818 career yards following his senior season. Thompson's 7,698 yards of total offense were the third-most in NCAA history when he moved on to the NFL. Thompson was named All-America and finished in the top 10 in Heisman Trophy voting before becoming the third selection in the 1978 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. He played in Cincinnati for three seasons, and played with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for two more.

MIKE UTLEY: When Mike Utley completed his distinguished Cougar career, he departed as the most highly decorated gridiron star in WSU history. The offensive lineman started 42 of his 45 games played, and was named to six All-America first teams. He helped lead the Cougars to an Aloha Bowl victory over Houston in 1988, and then propelled himself to the NFL after being drafted in the third round by the Detroit Lions. He started at right guard in each of his first three professional seasons, but suffered a severe fracture of his sixth and seventh vertebrae in a game against the Los Angeles Rams, ending his football career.

LAMONT THOMPSON: One of the most feared safeties in the history of the Pac-10, Lamont Thompson intercepted more passes than any player in league history during his four-year career as a starter for the Cougars. Thompson was the greatest ball-hawk in to ever don a WSU uniform, setting a WSU record and tying a Pac-10 record with four interceptions in a single game. He also owns the school single-season mark with 10 interceptions in 2001, and set both conference and school records with 24 career interceptions. After an All-American collegiate career, Thompson was selected in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals and went on to become a starter with the Tennessee Titans for three seasons.

CLANCY WILLIAMS: A first-team All-American in 1964, Clancy Williams led the Cougars in rushing, scoring, total offense, pass receptions, punt returns and kickoff returns. Williams completed his career ranked second on WSU's all-time list in rushing (1,456) and kickoff returns (719). He went on to play cornerback for the Los Angeles Rams for eight seasons after being the ninth overall selection in the first round of the 1965 NFL Draft. He played his entire NFL career with the Rams, leading the team in interceptions three times and completing his career ranked second on the team's all-time list in the statistical category with 28.

THE CHIEFS

Four of Washington State's early football coaches were graduates of the Carlisle Indian School in Pennsylvania. They were (far left) Frank Shively (1898-99, 1-1-1 record), (second from left) William "Lone Star" Dietz (1915-17, 17-2-1 record, including Rose Bowl team from 1915), (second from right) Gus Welch (1919-22, 16-10-1 record) and (far right) A. A. Exendine (1923-25, 6-13-4 record).

Mel Hein, arguably WSU's best football player of all time, has been winning awards since his playing days in the late 1920s. Even after his death in 1992, Hein was collecting awards and recognition.

Hein was an All-American and member of WSU's 1931 Rose Bowl team. He then went on to an amazing career with the New York Giants. Despite having not played since 1945 and obviously not seen by most of today's players, coaches and fans, Hein's legend status lives on.

The latest honor accorded Hein was his selection to the Walter Camp Foundation's All-Century College Football Team. The 20th century was just drawing to a close in December, 1999, when the who's who of college football players was announced and there was Hein's name as one of the three greatest centers to ever play the college game.

In addition, Hein has also been picked to professional football's all-time team and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1927-31 Mel Hein

Mel Hein, a consensus pick as the greatest center in football, was the first player to have his jersey retired at Washington State University.

Hein wore his famous No. 7 throughout his collegiate and professional career.

An All-America pick following the 1930 season, Hein helped lead the Cougars to an undefeated record that year and into the 1931 Rose Bowl Game against Alabama. WSU lost that game 24-0, but WSU's record in Hein's three varsity seasons was 26-6.

Besides his All-America selection his senior year, he was an All-West Coast pick after having been named to the All-Coast second team as a junior.

He was also a basketball player, starting at center his junior year for coach Jack Friel's club.

From WSU it was on to the New York Giants, where he played 15 years. Hein was inducted as a charter member into the National Football League Hall of Fame. He was also inducted as a charter member into the Washington State University Athletic Hall of Fame on Oct. 20, 1978, and is a member of the Washington State Sports Hall of Fame and the Inland Empire Sports Hall of Fame.

Eight times an All-Pro center, he was the NFL's most valuable player in 1938. He coached four years, both as head coach and as an assistant.

From 1966-67 he was the supervisor of officials for the American Football League.

In 1969, Hein was voted one of the 11 all-time best professional and collegiate football players in a vote conducted in conjunction with professional football's Centennial celebration.

The Washington State University Board of Regents honored Hein May 14, 1983, with its Distinguished Alumnus Award, the highest award bestowed a Cougar alum.

Hein is also a charter member of The College Hall of Fame, one of three Cougars honored by the National Football Foundation.

In 1999, he was one of three centers named to The Sporting News All-Century team for college players.

1974-78 Jack Thompson

14

Jack Thompson finished his career in 1978 as the most prolific passer in the history of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Thompson, who was granted a fifth year after missing the 1974 campaign with a knee injury, passed for 7,818 yards for a NCAA record. He became the fourth quarterback in NCAA history to pass for 2,000 yards or more in three seasons.

He established Pacific-10 Conference and WSU records for passes attempted (1,086), passes completed (601) and total plays (1,345). He tied the conference mark for touchdown passes (53) and touchdowns responsible for (63).

Other NCAA career accomplishments by Thompson placed him third in total offense with 7,698 yards, third in pass completions with 601 and tied for fifth with his 53 TD tosses. He became the first junior in the history of the conference to surpass the 5,000 yard barrier in passing.

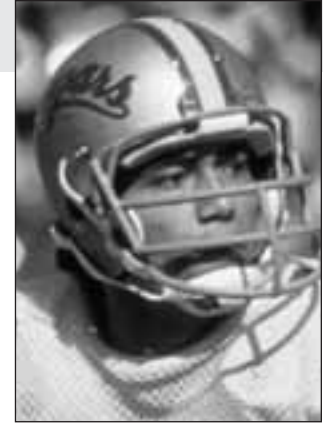

In 1976 he set a conference record for passing yards with 2,762, completions (208) and touchdown passes (20). He was an All-Pac-8 First Team pick as voted by the coaches, All-West Coast UPI First Team and a second-team AP pick, All-America honorable mention by AP and two-time Pac-8 Player of the Week.

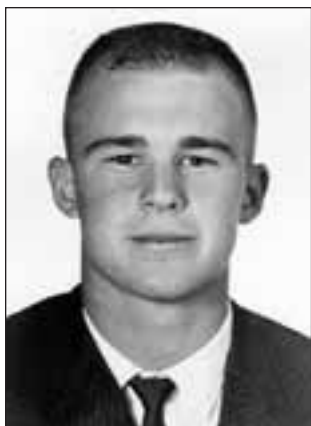

In 1977 he was named to the All-Pac-8, AP and UPI All-West Coast second teams and was named an AP All-America honorable mention.

Prior to the 1978 campaign he was a Playboy All-America pick and appeared on the cover of Street & Smith Magazine. He was All-Pac-10 First Team and UPI All-West Coast Second Team. Following the season he played in the Challenge Bowl and was named MVP, and played in the Hula Bowl. The National Football League scouts voted him to The Sporting News All-America First Team.

Thompson was the third player selected in the 1979 NFL draft, going to the Cincinnati Bengals. He later played for Tampa Bay.

He was only the second football player and the third athlete in WSU history to have his jersey retired.

The Washington State University Hall-of-Fame was begun in 1978. WSU President Dr. Glenn Terrell (since retired) called for the formation of the Athletic Hall-of-Fame.

It is comprised of 120 former WSU athletes, coaches, administrators and special contributors to Cougar athletics. Nominations are accepted from the general public each spring, and the WSU Athletic Hall-of-Fame Council votes to determine membership.

Members of the WSU Athletic Hall-of-Fame, the year they were inducted and the category in which they were inducted are listed below.

THE BROADCAST TEAM

Hall of fame announcer Bob Robertson Sr. is in his 43rd season calling Cougar football action. When Cougar fans gather and talk about Saturday afternoons in the fall on the Palouse, football and Robertson just naturally become part of the conversation.

The long-time Cougar broadcaster began his association with WSU football in 1964 and with the exception of a three-year period in 1969-71, he's been calling the Cougar action ever since.

Robertson's peers have selected him Washington Sportscaster of the Year 12 times, validating what Cougar fans have known for years - he is simply the best. In 1995 he was named the State Broadcaster of the Year.

Robertson was inducted into both the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame and the Inland Empire Hall of Fame in 2001-02, and in August 2004 received the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award at ceremonies held at the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind. At the same time he became the first broadcaster west of the Mississippi to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame - broadcaster division. He is also a member of the Pierce County Hall of Fame.

Bob's association with WSU runs deeper than just football broadcasts. For 23 years he was the voice of Cougar Basketball, including several NCAA tournament teams. In 1978-79, he was named WSU's Dad of the Year and he also worked with the WSU Cougar Club on the west side in the 1980's.

Robertson was born in Fullerton, Calif., during spring training of the Seattle Indians of the Pacific Coast League. At the time his father was a player for the Seattle club.

After graduating from Blaine (Wash.) High School, he attended Western Washington University in Bellingham, where he launched his broadcasting career. His first broadcasting exposure came as a young actor for the Canadian Broadcasting Company in Vancouver, B.C., then bloomed while attending college.

In 1948 Robertson signed to play professional baseball, but a year later gave up playing to become the voice of the Wenatchee Chiefs of the Western International League, his first full-time broadcasting opportunity.

Among his many accomplishments, Robertson has:

- Spent 25 years calling Pacific Coast League baseball in Seattle and Tacoma;
- Broadcast professional soccer in Seattle, Tacoma and Portland; he was Washington's Soccer Man of the Year in 1983;
- Broadcast hockey, boxing, wrestling and hydroplane races
- Had his "cup of coffee" in major league baseball, broadcasting some Seattle Mariner games in the late 1990's
- Served as television sports anchor in the Seattle market for 25 years, including time with KSTW (called KTNT 1956-70, then KSTW 1976-83) and KMO (he helped put them on the air);
- Currently voice of the Spokane Indians baseball team and Pacific Lutheran University basketball;
- Served as the television voice of Notre Dame football and basketball for two years in the 1950's.

This fall Bob and wife Joanne celebrate their 58th anniversary. They have four children, Hugh, Janna, John and Rebecca, and seven grandchildren. The Robertsons have resided in Tacoma since 1950, with the exception of his stint with Notre Dame.

As much as Robertson is part of Cougar Football Saturday, so is his closing broadcast signature, "Always be a good sport, be a good sport all ways."

Joining Robertson in the broadcast booth for the ninth year is a name familiar very to Cougar football fans, former Cougar head coach (1978-86) Jim Walden. Walden is the third-winningest coach in WSU football history.

Known for his wit and charm, Walden later coached the Iowa State, then in 1995 moved into the broadcasting profession, both in radio and TV, while continuing to live in Iowa.

Walden, who beat every team in the Pacific-10 Conference while at WSU, is perhaps best remembered for resurrecting a struggling program that had three coaches in three years, and for guiding WSU to the 1981 Holiday Bowl, the Cougars' first bowl appearance in 51 years. Walden, inducted into the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame in the fall of 2009, now lives in Harrison, Idaho.

Patrolling the sidelines and locker rooms is KXLY's Bud Nameck, who also handles the network's play-by-play duties during the Cougar men's basketball season. Nameck served as sports director for at KXLY for 13 years, 1982-95, and was the voice of Cougar football for FOX Sports Northwest for 14 years, 1988-2001.

He is currently the Cougar Sports Radio Network Director and resides in Spokane with his wife Diane and daughter Kelsey.

THE COUGAR SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

Cougar football games are broadcast live on the radio throughout the Pacific Northwest via The Cougar Sports Radio Network. The 25-station football network - one of the largest in the Pac-10 - reaches from British Columbia to Oregon and can be heard worldwide via the internet and XM Satellite radio. The men's basketball network includes 16 stations.

The KXLY Broadcast Group produces The Cougar Sports Network, which also features radio coverage of WSU men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball, and 30-minute coaches show in the fall and winter seasons.

Cougar football broadcasts begin an hour before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with post-game interviews with players and coaches and a live call-in talk show.

KXLY, which began partnership with the Cougars in 2001 and now runs through 2012, also publishes Crimson & Gray Magazine, the official game-day publication of Cougar football.

Washington State University is a member of the nation's leading athletic entity—the Pacific-10 Conference.

Joining July 1, 1962, WSU was the first member to be admitted to the original membership of five. The Pacific-8 Conference was organized July 1, 1959, and originally called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The original membership included the University of California, USC, Stanford University, the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) and the University of Washington.

The University of Oregon and Oregon State University joined the Pac-8 July 1, 1964.

The association's members formally adopted the name, Pacific-8 Conference, Sept. 3, 1968.

The Pac-8 officially became the Pacific-10 Conference with the addition of the University of Arizona and Arizona State University on July 1, 1978.

THE COUGAR MASCOT

In 1927, Governor Roland Hartley presented a cougar cub to the students of the University. This first cougar mascot was called Butch, to honor Herbert "Butch" Meeker of Spokane, a WSU football star at the time. Butch II was presented to the students by Gov. Clarence D. Martin in 1938. Butch III and IV were twin cubs, presented by Gov. Arthur B. Langlie in 1942. Gov. Langlie presented Butch V in 1955. Butch VI, the last live mascot on campus, died in the summer of 1978. He had been presented to WSU by Gov. Albert Rosellini in 1964 from the Seattle Zoo. Today, WSU students in a "Butch the Cougar" mascot costume rally school spirit at athletic contests, including football games and other events.

THE COUGAR NICKNAME

Washington State University students officially adopted the nickname "Cougars" October 28, 1919, three days after a reference to "cougars" was used in a football game newspaper story following WSU's upset 14-0 win at California. In the story, a California Bay Area writer said the Pacific Northwest team "played like cougars" in upsetting the Bears.

THE COUGAR HEAD LOGO

In 1936, student Randall Johnson, class of 1938, designed the original Cougar head logo for Washington State College. It was used on the side of college trucks. In 1959, when the institution changed from college to university, he re-created the logo to incorporate the "U" in place of the "C." In 2002, WSU developed a new graphic identity. It employs the Cougar head within a crest, an internationally recognized symbol for higher education.

THE VICTORY BELL

In the late 1800s, the victory bell was mounted on the ground in the center of campus; it rang to start and dismiss classes in those early days. Today, it is located at the Lewis Alumni Centre. A member of the Student Alumni Connection rings it after WSU football wins.

Elson S. Floyd

President

Elson S. Floyd is Washington State University's 10th president. He took office in May of 2007 after serving as president of the four-campus University of Missouri System during 2002-2007.

"Excellence, quality, and accountability" are keystones to his administration leading WSU. He puts high priority on WSU being a research leader and having a global presence. Furthermore, he endorses diversity of thought, opinion, perspective, viewpoints, race and ethnicity as characteristics of a world-class university.

Floyd served as president of Western Michigan University from 1999 to 2002, and held several administrative positions at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, including deanships in student affairs and the College of Arts and Sciences.

Previously, he spent two years as executive director of the state of Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board, the agency responsible for statewide coordination, planning, oversight, policy analysis and student financial aid programs for Washington's post-secondary education system. From 1990 to 1993, he served as vice president for student services, vice president for administration and executive vice president at Eastern Washington University.

He began his career in 1978 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he held deanships in the Division of Student Affairs, the General College and the College of Arts and Sciences. From 1988 to 1990, he was assistant vice president for student services for the UNC system office, where he helped develop and articulate student affairs and academic affairs policy for the 16-campus university system.

A native of Henderson, N.C., Floyd holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science and speech, a master of education degree in adult education, and a doctor of philosophy degree in higher and adult education, all from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Floyd and his wife, Carmento Floyd, have two grown children.

Anne McCoy

Senior Associate Director of Athletics/SWA

Veteran intercollegiate athletics administrator Anne McCoy has served Washington State University since 2001 and was promoted from associate director to senior associate director of athletics in 2004. Her appointment to senior woman administrator came in the summer of 2007.

In her capacity as senior associate director of athletics, she is charged with overseeing all aspects of WSU's athletic budget and supervises several areas with the department including the business office, equipment, computer and football operations, and event management and facility operations. She also serves as a liaison for men's and women's basketball.

McCoy serves on several Pacific-10 Conference committees, including the Senior Woman Administrator and Television Committees and on the Budget and Finance, Compliance and Enforcement, Diversity Leadership Initiative Review, Awards Review, Medical Care, and Student-Athlete Advisory committees. She also been appointed to the NCAA Women's Rowing Committee and is a past vice president of the Pac-10 Conference.

A Wisconsin native, McCoy earned a bachelor's degree in sports management in 1989 from the University of Massachusetts. While an undergraduate, she worked for the Pittsburgh Penguins professional hockey organization, expanding the club's season ticket base. McCoy also served an internship as the assistant athletic business manager at the University of Connecticut, and was instrumental in designing and implementing a comprehensive computerized budget-tracking system.

McCoy served in several capacities at the University of Maine from 1989-1995, lastly as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. At Maine, she supervised men's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's swimming and softball in addition to the athletic business office, ticket office, retail store and cheerleading staff and operations. She took a similar administrative positive at St. Louis University from 1995-96.

In 1996, McCoy moved west, joining the staff at Portland State University as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator, and was promoted to senior associate director of athletics in 1998. At PSU, she managed all internal staff and the daily operations of the department, representing the director of athletics as needed. McCoy also supervised men's and women's golf, cross country/track and field, and women's volleyball, soccer, tennis and softball.

McCoy and her husband Brian have two children, daughter Taylor and son Jake.

Jim Sterk

Director of Athletics

Washington native James M. Sterk was appointed Washington State University's director of athletics in June of 2000. In his nine years, Sterk has seen unprecedented growth and success by the Cougars' 17 intercollegiate teams and 450 individuals who compete for WSU annually.

On the academic front, WSU earned 114 selections to Pacific-10 Conference All-Academic teams in 2007-08. That figure represented the most student-athletes to earn such an honor during an academic year in school history. All student-athletes maintained a 3.01 cumulative GPA in 2008-09 and for 10 consecutive semesters WSU student-athletes have averaged at least a 3.00 cumulative GPA.

On the field, Cougar Athletics has enjoyed extraordinary achievements. In the past three years, 12 sports have been represented in NCAA postseason play. Among the many highlights achieved by the programs are the men's basketball team three consecutive postseason appearances including back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament (2007 & 2008). The football program put together three consecutive 10-win seasons from 2001 to 2003 and the women's rowing program earned five NCAA Championship appearances including a fourth-place finish in 2006, the highest finish ever by a WSU women's team in NCAA postseason competition.

Facility improvements have also been among projects Sterk has tackled. Following the 2006 football season, the initial phases of a renovation to Martin Stadium, the home of Cougar football, began with Phases I and II which were completed in time for the 2008 football season. Completed in the fall of 2008 were a state-of-the-art rowing tank and a hydrotherapy complex to further meet the needs of student-athletes. In addition, plans are underway for an ambitious capital improvement plan that will enhance many other WSU athletic facilities.

A 1980 graduate of Western Washington University, Sterk received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. His professional career has included positions at North Carolina, Maine, Seattle Pacific, Tulane and Portland State, the latter as director of athletics for five years before joining the Cougar staff.

The foundation of Sterk's leadership plan is based on five areas: the student-athlete experience, resource acquisition, personnel, political dynamics, and facilities. All five areas have enjoyed growth in his first nine years at Washington State University.

Sterk currently is the chair of the Pac-10 Athletic Directors committee and has served on numerous Pacific-10 Conference committees during his tenure at WSU.

Ken Casavant

Faculty Athletics Representative

Professor Ken Casavant, a member of the Washington State University family since 1967, currently serves as WSU's Faculty Athletics Representative to the Pacific-10 Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. He is a past president of the Pac-10 and most recently served on the NCAA Division I Management Council.

Casavant came to WSU as a graduate research assistant in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics. He was named an assistant professor in 1971, an associate professor in 1975 and a full professor in 1980.

In 2004, Casavant received the Shalin Excellence award for Leadership for the University, having had the honor several years earlier of giving the Distinguished Faculty Address, the University's oldest award and also receiving the Shalin Excellence in Public Service award for the University. In 1979, Casavant received the R.M. Wade award for outstanding teacher in the college of agriculture at WSU, and in 1990, he earned the distinguished WSU Faculty of the Year award. Casavant was elected vice-chair (1991-92) and chair (1992-93) of the WSU Faculty Senate and has been accorded the Distinguished Teacher award by the American Agricultural Economics Association. He was named Distinguished Scholar by the Western Agricultural Economics Association in 2003 for his nationally recognized work as a transportation economist.

During his tenure at WSU, Casavant has served as associate director for the Washington State Transportation Center (1984-87) and the interim Vice-Provost for Academic Affairs and interim Vice-Provost for Research (1998).

The North Dakota native is a 1965 graduate of North Dakota State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural economics. He received his master's degree from NDSU, followed by a Ph.D., from WSU in 1971.

Ken and his wife Dorothy have two grown daughters, Michele and Colette and one grandson, Raphael.

FOOTBALL*Paul Wulff, 2nd Year

Paul Wulff became WSU's 31st head football coach in December, 2007, when he returned to his alma mater after spending the previous eight years as head coach at Eastern Washington University. Wulff has assembled a 55-51 in his nine-year head coaching career, including three postseason appearances.

VOLLEYBALL*Andrew Palileo, 2nd Year

Dedicated to rebuilding the Cougar volleyball program back to national prominence, Andrew Palileo ended his first season at WSU with the team winning three of the final four matches in the Pac-10 schedule. The WSU volleyball coaching staff has tirelessly hit the recruiting trails and the results will soon be evident on the court.

SOCCER*Matt Potter, 7th Year

Matt Potter, in his seventh season, has led Washington State to five-straight winning seasons, an unprecedented feat for Cougar soccer since joining the Pacific-10 Conference. His 55 victories are a school record. Last season, he led the Cougars to their first postseason berth since 2002. He has coached 19 all-conference honorees and 72 Pac-10 All-Academic award recipients.

SWIMMING*Erica Quam, 8th Year

During her seven years at Washington State, three Erica Quam coached teams have scored points at the NCAA Championships. Last season, the Cougars sent three student-athletes to the NCAA Championships, a first for the program. Under her leadership, WSU swimmers have set 19 school records, and garnered 75 Pac-10 All-Academic honors, including 25 first team accolades.

MEN'S BASKETBALL*Ken Bone, 1st Year

The 17th head coach in Cougar Basketball history, Ken Bone brings 17 years of head coaching experience with him to the Palouse, including the last four at Portland State. A Washington native, Bone took PSU to consecutive NCAA Tournaments his last two seasons with the Vikings (2008 and 2009), marking the only appearances in school history.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL*June Daugherty, 3rd Year

June Daugherty, in her third season leading the Cougars, brought a wealth of experience in building winning programs. In her first season Daugherty brought in one of the nation's top-ranked recruiting classes and more than tripled home attendance. Last year she orchestrated one of the nation's top 30 turnarounds, measured in both wins and jump in RPI. Daugherty is looking to take her third different school to the NCAA Tournament.

MEN'S GOLF*Walt Williams, 12th Year

Since taking over the WSU men's and women's golf programs in 1998, Walt Williams' teams have re-written the record books and crowned two All-Americans. Both the men's and women's teams have competed in the NCAA West Regionals during his tenure. Williams is the winningest coach in school history, compiling a total of 27 team titles, including one in 2008-09.

WOMEN'S GOLF*Kelli Kamimura, 1st Year

Kelli Kamimura is in her first season as the head women's golf coach at WSU. A native of Burlington, Wash. (Sedro Woolley HS), she was also a two-time All-American during her collegiate playing days at Washington.

TENNIS*Lisa Hart, 7th Year

The Cougar tennis program, under the direction of seventh-year head coach Lisa Hart, has been nationally ranked each of the last six seasons and has recorded 14-plus wins in three of the last four years. In 2008 the Cougars reached the NCAA tournament for the first time since the 2002 season.

BASEBALL*Don Marbut, 6th Year

Don Marbut, is in his sixth year as WSU's head coach and seventh with the program. In 2009, he skipped the Cougars to their first NCAA postseason since 1990. He has mentored 14 Major League Baseball draft picks and led the Cougars to a national ranking in three of the last four seasons.

ROWING*Jane LaRiviere, 8th Year

Jane LaRiviere has led her teams to four NCAA Championships in her seven years at WSU, including twice in the last four seasons. In 2008 the Cougars finished eighth at the NCAA Championships, only bettered by her squad's fourth-place finish in 2006. LaRiviere was awarded Pac-10 and CRCA West Regional Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2006.

TRACK & FIELD/
CROSS COUNTRY*Rick Sloan, 16th Year

Rick Sloan is the dean of WSU coaches, having been with the program for 36 years, including the last 14 as head coach of both the men's and women's programs. He has directed 38 WSU athletes to NCAA Outdoor All-America status 67 times and mentored 29 Cougar athletes to NCAA Indoor All-America status 44 times.
